THERE IS A NEW MAYOR IN TOWN

At the beginning of the Thursday, April 13th regular meeting of the Hennessey Board of Trustees, Katy Walters swore in the two returning board members, Bert Gritz and Clif Vogt, and the newly elected Randy Bohnstedt. Kelley Vaverka was also sworn in at the same time as the new town Clerk.

The board then voted to make Clif Vogt the mayor. You can watch the entire Board of Trustees meeting at AllAboutHennessey.com

HENNESSEY EAGLES... NOT THOSE EAGLES

Everyone in Hennessey is familiar with our Hennessey Eagles. But not many are aware of the other Hennessey Eagles. Hennessey is home to several pairs of American Bald Eagles living on the town's fridges. For the past 5 years or so there have been many sightings of American Bald Eagles near Hennessey. The large birds are new to the state, as little as 30 years ago there were no eagles in Oklahoma.

In 1978, eagles were formally listed as an endangered species in all 48 contiguous states in the United States. At the lowest point, only 417 breeding pairs of eagles were known to exist in the country.

In 1984, There were no known eagles in Oklahoma when the non-profit Sutton Avian Research Center opened in Bartlesville. The Research Center brought eagle eggs from Florida, raised them here in Oklahoma, and then released the young birds in the Sequoyah National Wildlife Refuge. Today, there are 249 documented eagle nests in the state. Many of these birds stay year-round and return to nest and raise their young.

Hennessey landowners with eagle nests are very protective of their eagle families so we are not specifying exactly where the nests are located. The family of eagles All About Hennessey photographed appeared to have three eaglets in the nest along with their parents. When we were there it appeared that the young were not yet flying. One of the parents always stayed in the nest while the other flew off hunting for food. Photos by Jack Quirk.

HHS Baseball v. Newkirk 4/14/23

Hennessey Eagles Baseball earned their two-game sweep of the Newkirk Tigers in dramatic fashion, first with a come-from-behind 5-4 victory on Thursday night, then with a 12-3 thrashing of the Tigers on their senior night in Newkirk.

Trailing 1-0 in the 5th inning in game one, Senior CF Seth Simunek tied things up scoring on an RBI line drive base hit by Westyn Hopkins. Two hitters later, Senior Sebastian Gonzalez gave the Eagles their first lead with an RBI bases loaded walk. Freshman Catcher Hayden Hubbard followed with a single that scored 2 before Gonzalez scored, himself, on a passed ball.

The Tigers answered with 3 runs in the top of the 6th to trim the Eagles lead to 1. In that inning, Newkirk's 2nd baseman Kyson Thiel was ejected for arguing a strike three call. That would become a big factor in how this game concluded.

Fast-forward to the top of the 7th and the Eagles clinging to a 5-4 lead, Freshman Jarrett Smith, on the mound in relief of starter Jakob Johns, got the first two Tigers out with a ground out and a strikeout before giving up a two-strike double to Newkirk's #1 hitter. With the tying run in scoring position, in steps the Tiger's replacement for the previously ejected Thiel. At this point, Hennessey Head Coach Matthew Fuksa has a discussion with the home plate umpire, then with the field umpire joining in. Upon the conclusion of the discussion, the umpires turned and called the replacement batter out for "illegal, unreported substitute," as the Tiger's head coach Blake Dunlap failed to report this player's entry as a proper substitute. Game over. Eagles win 5-4.

Hubbard led the Eagles at the plate going 2 for 4 with 2 RBI. Hopkins and Kevin Trillo were the only other Eagles with hits in the game, as the team only mustered 4 total, but did walk 10 times.

Jarrett Smith, now 4-2 on the season, earned the win in relief, pitching 3 2/3, allowing 4 hits, 3 runs, 2 BB, striking out 4.

Game 2 of the series was the Sebastian Gonzalez show. With both his bat and his arm, Sebas' put the Eagles on his shoulders and led them to a decisive victory.

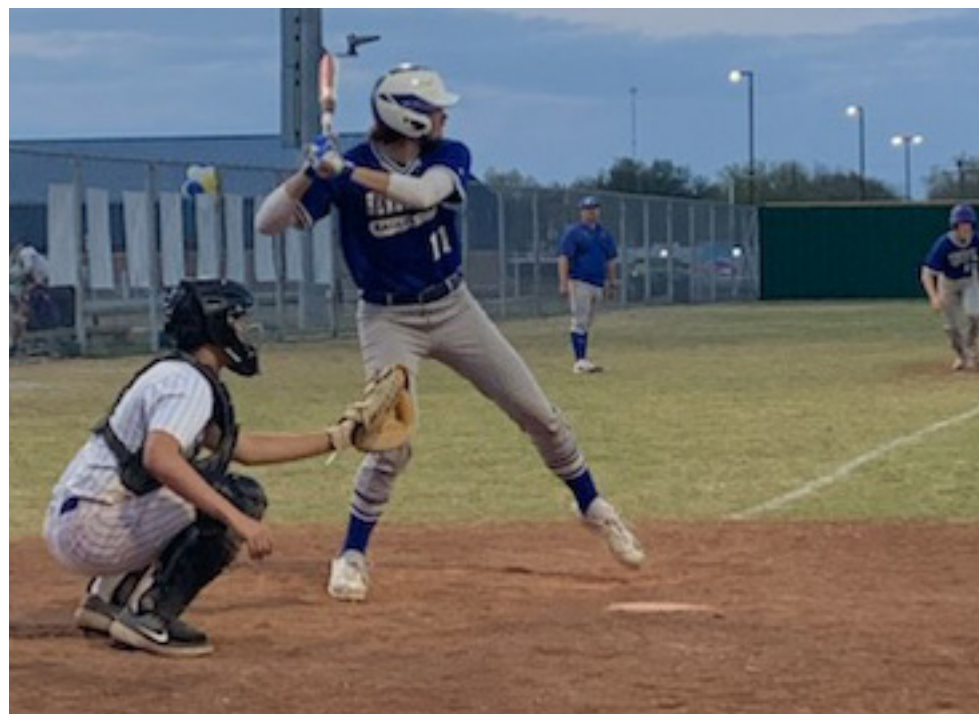

Newkirk's #1, Tucker Beaston, who had an outstanding day on the mound himself – going 5 complete, walking only 1 Eagle, and striking out 11, had no answer, however, for Sebastian Gonzalez, who went 2 for 3 with 2 runs scored and 5 RBI – 4 of those runs batted in coming off 1 swing of the bat, as Gonzalez hammered his 2nd grand slam home run in the past week, a line shot over the left-center field wall, turning on a 2-2 fast ball that flipped a 1-run game into what would become a 12-3 statement victory.

Sebastian, now 2-1 with a 1.346 ERA, followed that up with his best game on the mound this season, allowing only 1 hit, 0 earned runs, and striking out a season-high 13 opposing batters.

Sophomore Hunter Weber earned the 2-inning Save (the Eagles' first of the season), striking out 1 and allowing no hits and no walks.

To cap things off for the evening in Newkirk, Hennessey Freshman Darren Lara pounded a 3-run inside the park home run for the Eagles Junior Varsity, with Cam Griffin getting the JV win in relief.

The Eagles (10-11 Overall, 5-5 District) move to 5th in Class 3A-1 with series against the district's bottom two teams, Blackwell and Millwood, coming up this week. Game 1 with the Blackwell Maroons is this Monday night, with a 5 pm first pitch at Jack Funderburg Field.

INJURED BY HORSE

David Jones was thrown from his horse Friday morning (April 14) which resulted in a back injury. LifeEMS responded to a location west of Hennessey, and requested a medical helicopter for transport. Hennessey Firefighters established a landing zone on an oil well pad a short distance from the Jones property. A MediFlight helicopter arrived at 11:45 am, then transported to INTEGRIS Baptist Medical Center in Oklahoma City.

Thankfully David is going to be okay, he suffered a small compression fracture, a hematoma, and bruised lungs.

KINGFISHER COUNTY WILDLAND FIRE TASK FORCE

The Kingfisher County Wildland Fire Task Force connects the fire departments from Kingfisher, Hennessey, Okarche, Dover, Big 4, Omega, and Cashion to support each other if a neighboring county needs assistance. The Kingfisher Wildland Fire Task Force provides backup when a jurisdiction is affected by a devastating wildland fire and all of its resources have been exhausted or may not be sufficient to contain the flames. This ensures that no single county or area has to deploy all its assets for firefighting. Although these fire departments have helped each other in the past, the task force provides an organized approach to the efforts.

When a catastrophic fire takes place in a neighboring community, Ryan Deatherage, the task force coordinator, Kingfisher County 911 Director, and Deputy Director of emergency management, calls for the Kingfisher County Fire Task Force to assemble and determine the necessary resources and personnel that should be dispatched. This way, they can help out while still keeping some supplies in reserve should they need to use them at home.

Fire departments lend a helping hand to other jurisdictions knowing that if they ever need help, the favor will be repaid. When the fire departments help with a fire that meets the guidelines established by FEMA, they can be eligible for reimbursement from the Fire Management Assistance Grant (FMAG) Program. Other than the possible funding from FEMA, there is no financial gain that comes with being part of the task force.

On April 1st, the Kingfisher County Wildland Fire Task Force sent a team out to the Simpson Road fire in Logan County in response to an ongoing fire. This was their first assignment since the task force had been reorganized. Later, on April 4th, another group was dispatched to Longdale to provide additional assistance to other departments including Dewey, Grant, Lincoln, and Woods counties, as well as Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes Fire Management & Prevention, Alfalfa County Task Force, Major County Task Force, Oklahoma Forestry Services, Blaine County Sheriff's Office, Oklahoma Highway Patrol, Canton-Longdale Ambulance Service, and Major County EMS.

If you would like to support your local fire department, they are always accepting donations of bottled water, sports drinks, snacks, etc.

FOOD TRUCK ORDINANCE

The topic of out-of-town food trucks operating in Hennessey has been simmering for about two years and received some attention at last week's Town Trustees meeting. The board asked the town attorney to look into an ordinance restricting out-of-town food trucks in city limits.

The issue was out-of-town operators coming into town and taking business away from our restaurant owners with brick-and-mortar establishments, employees, and paying taxes. Over the past few months, a Chick-fil-A food truck based in Stillwater has been coming to Hennessey and parking directly across the street from several of our local restaurants. One restaurant owner commented, "This is just rude."

The 30-minute discussion debated the fee, how close they should be allowed to park to other businesses, and if it was a fundraiser or a for-profit business. The board and the audience agreed that a business with a Hennessey water bill proving they owned the property should be exempt from a fee. The board agreed to table the subject until they could ask the town attorney more questions and make a change to the ordinance.

You can see the entire board meeting video at AllAboutHennessey.com

OVERNIGHT REPAIRS

It was all hands on deck Thursday, April 13th while the Hennessey Public Works crew worked through the night on two water lines. They started at N. Oak and E. Iowa, then on to 6th and Bonita Street for the 2nd.

In order to minimize the impact on the town it was decided to work overnight turning off the water at 9:00 pm and completing all of the work at about 3:00am.

Thank you from Bert Gritz

I wish to thank everyone who came out and voted this past election. I am humbled and honored that you have placed your confidence and support in me as a town trustee.

In addition, I would like to thank Town Administrator Tiffany Tillman, Town Clerk Kati Walters, and Trustee Richard Simunek for their service to our community.

I am looking forward to continued progress for Hennessey!
