HOLY ART!

Many of you may know Rev. Ish Engle as the local pastor of the First Christian church in Hennessey or by his magic tricks performed at local events, but what you may not know is he's also a very talented artist.

Ish started sketching and drawing around 2014, drawing animals, still life, landscapes, and people. He tried his hand at working in acrylics practicing technique, color, shading, and tones, but most recently was inspired by British artists Toby Hasler and Will Kemp, and American artist Karen Campbell. Ish took to the style of Toby and his Urban sketching. Urban sketching is best described as a quick sketch done in ink on paper, then bringing in watercolor and going back with details in ink.

Working with his travel watercolor set, Rev Ish finds it meditative and relaxing to lose himself while painting. He has painted many local landmarks such as downtown Hennessey, Honey & Co, the Methodist, Catholic, and First Christian churches, still life, scripture cards, and whatever catches his eye. Growing up watching Bob Ross and those happy mistakes, Rev. Ish says sometimes it is the unexpected happy mistakes that turn out to be the most interesting in his art.

Ish plans to teach some classes at the Hive later date to be determined.

HENNESSEY GRAD WINS INTERNATIONAL AUCTIONEER AWARD

Brandon Mendoza Valles's attraction to auctions started at a very young age when he would attend a cattle auction every Saturday with his dad. Brandon said, "It was the biggest highlight of my week."

At the age of 13, Brandon met his mentor, a local auctioneer from Hennessey, Justin Choate. "He took me to the company he was employed for and I got to sell a couple of items," Brandon said.

Selling in Spanish

One evening while feeding horses, Brandon thought if anyone had ever been able to sell in Spanish. Brandon said, "Just thinking of how unique that was blew my mind and filled me with excitement. It was not easy at all, auctioneering itself is difficult and requires practice, but now attempting to do it in a completely different language was very stressful."

The Competitions

In 2018, Brandon just missed winning the National Auctioneers Association's International Junior Auctioneer Championship by one-half a point in Jacksonville, Florida. After missing opportunities at several other major events in New Orleans and San Diego Brandon said, "I told myself on the flight home I would never show up unprepared for something that takes such dedication to win. A couple of months later I started selling more than I ever had."

A week after graduating from high school in 2023, Brandon got an offer from his uncle to work in the oil field. Brandon said, "I found myself on a 14-hour night shift 4 hours away from home, and still constantly practicing and developing my entirely new auction chant."

Being prepared, having practiced, and smoothly being able to sell and transition from English to Spanish so quickly gave Brandon the confidence needed to stand on the stage.

This year, the National Auctioneers Association convention and competition was held in Oklahoma City at the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. On Friday, July 21st, Brandon was awarded the 2023 National Auctioneers Association International Auctioneers Association Champion. Brandon said, "I am extremely happy to be able to serve and represent my great National Auction Association as the Junior Ambassador for the 2023-2024 year! I'm excited to grow the youth participation and invite new members to join the association. To be able to share my passion with others I know that would love this great industry as well. My bilingual trade is something I plan on using to bring more diversity to my dear association. I'm truly thrilled and can't wait to get to work!"

Brandon Said, "First and foremost I want to take this time and thank God. This has truly been such a ride these past 5 years. I want to thank my wonderful parents and family, my great mentor Justin Choate and the entire Choate Family for their continuous support from the very start.

AUGUST 8TH SPECIAL ELECTION

On August 8, 2023, Kingfisher County will be holding a Special Election for a half-cent sales tax. This is dedicated solely to constructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing of county roads and bridges. The following are reminders from the Kingfisher County Election Board.

EARLY VOTING BEGINS THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 2023

Early voting begins Thursday, August 3, 2023, for voters in Kingfisher County. Voters who will not be able to make it to the polls on Election Day have the option of voting early at their County Election Board. Kingfisher County Election Board Secretary Shawna Butts said early voting is open to all voters. "You do not need to provide an excuse to vote early. Oklahoma allows early voting for all elections conducted by the County Election Board or State Election Board—from school board and municipal elections to state and federal elections. This is a great option for those who will be out of town on Election Day or who want to avoid long lines," Shawna Butts said. Early voting is available Thursday, August 3, and Friday, August 4 from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Kingfisher County Fairgrounds-MacCenter Building located at 300 S 13 TH St. Kingfisher, OK 73750. Shawna Butts reminds voters that early voting is not available at polling locations. Some voters may need assistance to vote because they are blind or visually disabled, physically disabled or infirmed, or illiterate. Such individuals may request to have an assistant or vote privately and independently using the ATI device attached to the voting device. Those who require assistance should talk to their precinct official or contact the County Election Board directly for instructions.

OKSEASONEDSISTERS JOIN ALL ABOUT HENNESSEY

The sisters will be featured in their own column every two weeks.

What is OK Seasoned Sisters?

Well, it's actually OKSeasonedSisters. Because we are Summer and Autumn. Seasons, haha. But also because we decided to try to create community by sharing the seasons of our lives to connect with others and remind everyone that it is okay to be your true selves. Biblically speaking, we are the "salt of the Earth" but we are also sometimes "spicy" sooo that fits in the "seasoned" part of our name too! Autumn is a bit of an overthinker so the name we chose has multiple meanings.

Why did you decide to do this?

Back in 2020, I (Summer) was deep into raising chickens for eggs and starting in on sourdough, and learning new skills like "homesteading". I shared a bit on my personal FB and Instagram and had a lot of questions and asked for more info and recipes. So Autumn mentioned me starting a blog and Summer was all "No way, I could never do that!" So Autumn said, "Sure you can, I'll help! We can do it together". So here we are! Also, Autumn had just adopted Silas (her first son) and was thrust into motherhood and newborn-hood and was craving adult interaction it was 2020 and life was just weird. This felt like a good option for connecting with people, so we jumped in!

Why was there a name change?

We started with the name 89ersisters in homage to our Nana and her connection to the Land Run of 1889. But we ended up feeling like that name limited our audience and didn't go far enough to explain who we are. OKSeasonedSisters is a nod to our home in Oklahoma and our names, and seasons of life...and the hard truth that we've been through some life and want to connect with like-minded people. However, we do still have a website www.89ersisters.com

How long have you been doing this?

We started in November of 2020 and had a bumpy start figuring out how to share, what to share, and when to share, and then had our fair share of thinking who really cares about this?! We ultimately decided that even if no one cares, we wanted to do this for ourselves. And then we started having fun with it.

What are your topics going to be?

Food, Family, and Fun basically. Pretty much what makes up life for us. Chickens, gardening, baking, recipes, from-scratch cooking, not-from-scratch cooking, crockpot, and instapot meals, family fun, toddler stuff, teenager stuff, books, inspiration, sometimes we talk about women's health (by default since Summer is an L&D/women's health nurse and can't help herself) fertility stuff (due to Autumn's journey), and more. There is a lot to talk about with us!

Tell me about the She Shack you have been working on.

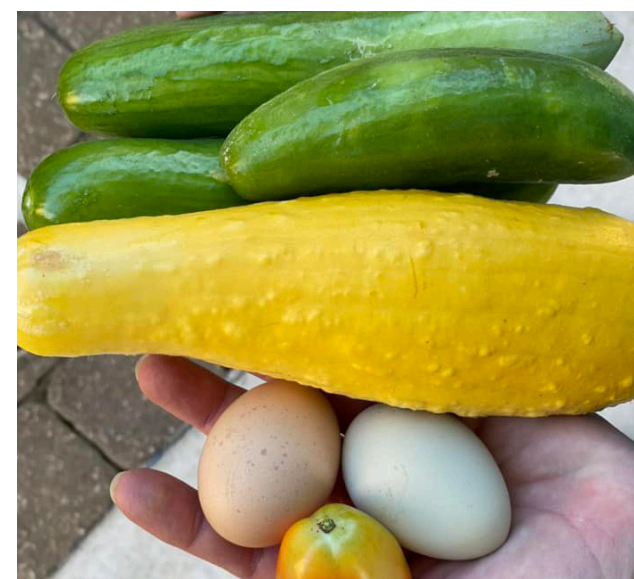

Oh man...props to Autumn on this one...she has been single-handedly keeping that dream alive. The Barn Galow (as we call it) is a dream of ours to give us a place where we can come together to create. Our dream was to have a place to cook, sew, read, and invite people in or to just be alone. It started as a storage shed and has slowly been transformed into a one-room retreat. Complete with a loft, kitchen, sitting space, pantry, and bathroom. We do still hope to be able to host Bible studies or book clubs, dinner parties, or just anything to help build connection/community. But we are not there yet...to be continued. Get excited.... but don't hold your breath!

Anything we need to know about you two guys?

Yes...we are most definitely not professionals! We have no idea what we are doing or what is the best way to do it, we are just doing it. We are guaranteed to say and or do the wrong thing at any given time....so stay tuned! But seriously, we are trying to provide encouragement and a space to connect and share experiences (and also recipes)

Starting next week The OKSeasonedSisters will host a biweekly column in the All About Hennessey POST Newspaper and our other social platforms. You can follow them on Instagram, Facebook, and Tick-Toc.

CORNER CLEAN UP STARTED

In August 2021, Hennessey Schools purchased the property at the corner of Hwy 51 and N. Mitchell Rd. After removing the buildings a few months ago, the site was left with a hole and piles of dirt. However, this week, David Fuksa with F5 Construction started cleaning up the corner, smoothing out the surface and making room for more parking.

The long-term plan for this property is to turn it into a place for a marquee with a sign for Hennessey Schools and the Eagle athletic facilities located along N. Mitchell Rd. With the ongoing growth of the school and athletic facilities, this will be a great addition to the community.
