MR. LEE BRIIX: KEEPER OF HISTORY

By Sara Jane Richter

Lee Briix, originally from Lacey, Oklahoma, loves history and always has; his affection for this liberal art field prompted him to become a history major at Central State University, now the University of Central Oklahoma, in Edmond. After nearly four decades of teaching history in high school classrooms, he still keeps the study as a central part of his life and retirement activities.

After beginning his public school career in Watonga and Cushing, Briix arrived in Hennessey in the fall of 1969. He enjoyed his 35 years in the classroom, but doesn't miss it as much as he misses watching his students grow, prosper, and mature and enjoying the camaraderie of his fellow faculty members. He and his wife Marva who is from Enid both taught history in Hennessey. He served as senior class sponsor several years, and under his suggestion, seniors began the tradition of giving their mothers roses and creating slide shows for viewing at graduation exercises.

Since retirement, Briix has penned several history books, including The Hennessey Book, a book of Hennessey's history which is available for checkout and also for purchase at the Hennessey public library. He did extensive research at the Hennessey library in the microfilm boxes to glean as much information about his community as he could. Some of Mrs. Marjorie Henkell Anderson's students with their hometown assignment research informed some of Briix's history book too. In addition, he's written eight books of family genealogy and has been happy to help his children and his children's children come to know their family stories and history.

MEET OUR INTERNS

Each year All About Hennessey takes on an intern to help with school-related news and information coverage. This year we have two outstanding young men working the school beat.

Jude Hestand, a senior, is our MMJ (Multi-media journalist) intern, and Taylor Ladwig, in his junior year is our sports writer. Jack Quirk, President of All About Hennessey said, "There is a great deal that happens at the school and there is no way we could cover all of the daily events without these 2 students."

Jude Hestand grew up in a military household and lived everywhere from North Pole Alaska to Omaha Nebraska. Jude was homeschooled for most of middle school, so he didn't have access to the opportunities people in public schools had. Once he started going back to school he grabbed at every opportunity that presented itself. He picked up instruments, choir, acting, and debate. Especially photography. He took the initiative and volunteered to take photos for football basketball, and other school-related activities. One day Jude attended a presentation that included historical photos and was hosted by Jack Quirk. Inspired, Jude stepped up and sparked his internship by sharing photos and contact information.

EAGLES VS OCS

The 0-3 Eagles had a very tough matchup at home last Friday night, September 22 against the 3-0 Oklahoma Christian Saints. The boys looked to rebound off their close loss against Hinton last week. They immediately got a defensive stop, but an errant snap gave OCS a good field position to tag on their first touchdown of the game. After a blocked punt and interception, OCS had a quick 21-0 lead. Another TD by the Saints lead to the Eagles finally cashing in on pay dirt, with a 58-yard touchdown pass from the junior tandem of Gunnar Holder to Kevin Trillo. Unfortunately, this would be the only time the Eagles would grace the green grass in the end zone. OCS played good, physical football and ran their game plan to a tea. It was 42-7 at half, and the Saints in the City tacked on 1 more 7-pointer to give us the 49-7 final score. Story by Taylor Ladwig, Photos by Jude Hestand.

MINI CHEER PERFORMS

The Hennessey Mini Cheer team consisting of about 50 pre-K through Kindergarten and 1st through 4th grade girls showed off their moves during half-time during last Friday night's September 22 football game. The girls practiced and learned their routines during a 3-day session with the Eagle Cheer Leaders. Photos by Jude Hestand

HONOR CHOIR AUDITIONS

After hours of hard work, practice, and dedication, these are the proud eagles that made the cut for the Western Oklahoma Choir Directors Association (WOCDA). Auditions took place in Shattuck, OK over the weekend. Students from any school West of I-40 are eligible to audition. This year there were 50 schools ranging from Class B to Class 6A, cultivating hundreds of auditionees. These students will learn new music for the festival and perform in their respective Junior High or High School Choir. The festival for WOCDA will be in Elk City October 23, 2023. "I am extremely proud of these students, and look forward to seeing them experience singing with other quality musicians from our side of the state", said Riley Faulkner, Vice-President of the Western Honor Choir Directors Association. -story by Riley Faulkner

HENNESSEY LADY EAGLES WRAPPED UP SEASON

The Hennessey Lady Eagles wrapped up the season last Friday, September 22nd at Regionals. The Lady Eagles played two games on Thursday (won against Texhoma and lost against Morrison) and came back today (Friday) to play from the loser's bracket. They beat Watonga in an extra inning pitting The Eagles against Morrison again. Morrison has gone to state the last 4 years winning two out of the 4 years! The Lady Eagles played a tough game but came up short. Ending up Runners-up at Regionals. They have had a year full of injuries and learning new positions and have done a great job being flexible.

BRIIX CONTINUED

He got hooked on Hennessey history when he wrote an article about the "marrying tree"—the big, old cottonwood north of Hennessey on Highway 51 that stands at the Kingfisher County and Garfield County border. Apparently, in days gone by, engaged couples had to marry in the same county where they received their marriage licenses. If they, for instance, had secured their licenses in Garfield County, but wanted to marry in their hometowns of Dover or Kingfisher or Hennessey or Lacey, they couldn't; they could only be married in Kingfisher County. Therefore, the closest spot to tie the knot was at the border of the two counties—at the old cottonwood tree, forever recalled as the "marrying tree." This report, Briix's first effort at capturing Kingfisher County history, was published by the Oklahoma Today magazine. He'd been bitten by the researcher/writer bug, and he's never found a cure.

He also researched the life of John Wilkes Booth, the apparent assassin of President Abraham Lincoln, for Booth supposedly lived in Hennessey for a few years before relocating to Enid. Too, Briix has investigated the life of Pat Hennessey and of Roy V. Cashion, the first Hennessey citizen and the first Oklahoman to fall in the Spanish-American War as he charged up San Juan Hill following Teddy Roosevelt's lead. (Cashion graduated with Hennessey's first graduation class.) A statue dedicated to Cashion stands in the Hennessey park on north Main Street. The plaque that commemorates Cashion also lists all Hennessey-born soldiers who died in World War I and in World War II. Briix played an instrumental role in getting Edward Goucher's name added to that monument; Goucher lost his life on a battlefield in Vietnam.

Briix believes that Hennessey has a couple of locations that deserve recognition on the National Register of Historic Places, namely the elevators, the old high school, the original First National Bank building, and the old Farmers and Merchants Bank building. He'll see what he can do to have these local locations receive the honor they deserve in the future.

The Briixes left Hennessey several years ago to be closer to their grandchildren and currently live in Oklahoma City. Just because they no longer live in Hennessey does not mean that they have lost interest in the town or its people—or its history. Mr. Briix will continue to research and write about his hometown, for after all, he's a historian and knows how history keeps a community alive and well and vital. Kudos to Mr. Briix, a recorder of history and a chronicler of yesterday, for his life-long effort at keeping people informed of their pasts.

HENNESSEY NURSING & REHAB GETS 5 STAR RATING!

Hennessey Nursing and Rehab has achieved outstanding results in their recent annual survey conducted by the Oklahoma State Department of Health. The facility received no deficiencies, a testament to their commitment to providing top-notch care for their residents. In addition, Medicare has recognized their efforts by awarding them a 5-star rating, the highest possible score on the Medicare.gov Care Compare website. This site is used by families looking for nursing homes for their loved ones.

To celebrate this achievement, the facility's owner and corporate officers treated the staff and residents to a delicious lunch from The Meat Monkey Food Truck, which served up mouth-watering smoked brisket, pulled pork, and other tasty dishes. The event was made even more special with a beautiful cake from Heather Hawk at Dorothy's Cakes. Congratulations to the amazing team at Hennessey Nursing and Rehab for their dedication to providing exceptional care for their residents!

WATCHING IT BURN

Hennessey Fire Fighters had a different assignment Tuesday morning September 26th. It was not to put out the fire but to keep an eye on it so it didn't spread. The property owned by Greg States located at the intersection of EW 670 and NS 2660 southeast of Hennessey was undergoing a major cleanup and the quickest way to deal with the old buildings was to burn them. David Fuksa with F5 Construction spent several days cleaning up the property and the last part was the shed and a mobile home. After setting the fire the structures went up very quickly as the firefighters kept an eye on it.

HENNESSEY TELEPHONE ALERT SYSTEM

Several years ago Hennessey purchased the CodeRed alert system that allowed the town to notify residents of emergencies and news that would affect them. Over the years as we moved away from our home and business landlines many of the numbers no longer work.

This system will call and or text your phone and deliver a recorded message alerting you of any necessary information such as a water shutdown or a change in trash pickup day, etc.

To be sure you are getting all of the notifications you can go to the Town of Hennessey website, Hennesseyok.org. Scroll down, on the left, and click on the "CodeRed Sign-up" link. You will create a little account and answer a few questions and that's it. When the time comes for the town to inform you of something important the system will call and leave you a message. If you need help or have questions you can call the Town Hall at 405-853-2426.

This site is optimized for current and supported common browsers (i.e. IE, Chrome, Firefox). For the best user experience, please ensure your browser is up-to-date.

Taylor Ladwig is pursuing sports journalism, specifically announcing. He was born in Oklahoma City and moved to Hennessey at the age of 3 where he currently lives. Taylor is the broadcast voice for The Hennessey Eagles. Anytime you watch one of the school's live streams on Skordel, Taylor is the play-by-play announcer and has been doing this for the past 3 years.

Taylor has had this same dream since 4th grade. He started his internship at All About Hennessey officially this year but wrote for AAH and another website last year. Quirk said, "We are going to see Taylor on ESPN or another major network after graduation. He is very focused and driven towards achieving this goal."

Both Taylor and Jude are part of the Hennessey School Career & Internship Program. This program, directed by Kim Hallmark matches students with business allowing them to experience real-life day-to-day operations in a career field they have an interest in.

Quirk said, "We enjoy having Taylor and Jude here and are looking forward to their bright future!"

Gaviota's Mexican Grill & Taco Truck

In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, we're featuring Gaviota's Mexican Grill & Taco Truck. It is a family-operated business run by Gaby and family. It all started with Hennessey's very own famous Taco Truck 10 years ago. This taco truck has been the hometown go to for a Mexican breakfast burrito in the morning, a quesadilla at lunch or authentic street tacos for dinner. Gaby's hard work and determination has allowed her to grow immensely. In April of 2023 Gaviota's expanded into a full Mexican restaurant, Gaviota's Mexican Grill, with a full new menu and street food items. The taco truck is still operating, and you can order to go from both or stop by the restaurant to dine in. Gaviota's is proud to offer the experience of Mexican street food on the go and specialty food plates when you dine in. We are proud to partner with them and showcase their hard work and dedication. Which ever you prefer, make sure to give them a visit at 122 N Main St!

EMERGENCY WATER LINE REPAIR

The Hennessey Water Department crew made quick work of an emergency waterline repair last Tuesday night, (September 19th) on W. 2nd St. They turned off the water town-wide at about 8 p.m. anticipating the repair to take about 2 hours but were able to re-store the water to the town in about 45 minutes. For a short time, they were concerned with an approaching severe thunderstorm, but the storm dissipated after a brief shower and did not interrupt their work. West 2nd St. was narrowed to one lane for a few days after while they cleaned up the repair site.
