EAGLES VS. CROSSINGS

The Eagles home opener kicked off tonight vs. the #6 ranked Crossings Christian. They looked strong on the first drive, shutting Crossings down and forcing a punt, but a fumble on their own side of the field set up a 36-yard touchdown for the Knights. As the saying goes, "When it rains it pours". Tonight, it poured on the Eagles. The Crossings defense forced stop after stop and the Knights wouldn't be denied offensively, garnering multiple long touchdown runs via numerous Knights. At the end of the 2nd quarter, Crossings led a nice drive that ended with a touchdown, capping off a 27-0 first half.

The second half saw much of the same, with Crossings struggling mightily with penalties, but it proved to not hurt them as they'd tack on a 59-yard rushing touchdown in the early minutes of the 3rd. Following a misstep by the Eagles deep in their own territory, they only needed 5 yards to extend their lead to 41.

At the start of the 4th, freshman Issac Renteria almost ran back a 70+ yard Pick Six, falling short at the 2 followed by a holding to send them back to the 12 looking for their first points of the night. Weston Smith would then reel in a 13-yard touchdown. That would wrap up the scoring for the game, as the Eagles fell 41-7 when the clock struck 0. They play Hinton next week away if you can't make it, you're welcome to watch on hennesseyeagles.tv.

Before the game, RedLevé Dance Studio sold sandwiches as a fundraiser and Diamondback Softball had a bake sale. The Lions Club also had their "punt, pass, kick" fundraiser with Wyatt Brown as the first contestant of the year. Photos by Libby Seiger and Jude Hestand. Story by Taylor Ladwig.

LADY EAGLES VS MEEKER BULLDOGS

The Eagles had a doubleheader Last Friday against the Meeker Bulldogs. After giving up just one in the top, the Eagles loaded the bases and tagged on a whole lot of their own. That one run in the top was all Meeker could muster for the first game, as their pitching never did get hot. The ladies won the first game 20-1. In the second game, freshman Claire Munroe was on the bump for the Eagles, though she didn't have her best, her teammates had her back and followed up game 1 by dropping 20 more runs. They would win the second game 20-10. They'll head to Dale next week hoping to tack on 20 more. Photos by Jude Hestand and story by Taylor Ladwig.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT!

The new Hennessey Police Car has been outfitted and is in service. The color change from white to black required a new graphic look that lights up at night when lights hit it. Police Chief Arron Pitts said, "This new Tahoe has a lot more room than the Explorers it's just a little harder to keep clean."

DOWNTOWN HENNESSEY LOOKED GREAT!

The downtown area of Hennessey is looking more beautiful than ever, thanks to the Hennessey Lions Club's flag initiative. The program kicked off on Labor Day, September 4th, and has already seen the participation of many local businesses. So far, 40 flags have been put up downtown, creating a stunning display of patriotism and community spirit.

The Lions Club would like to thank 4T's discount grocery, Sweet Spot Auto Supply, Eagle Mart, Farm Bureau insurance, Turkey Creek Mercantile, Painter Insurance, Woods Body Shop, Annie's Flowerhouse, Healthy Families Medical Clinic, Terry's Pump and Supply, Quick Pump Service, D&G Auto, Pizza Hut, Energy Meter Systems, Triple J Well Service, Black Diamond Threads, Interbank, Prairie Quilt, Family Cafe, Farmstead Furniture Store, Hennessey Mercantile, Honey&Co, H-Town Auto Wash, Eat It Up, Sonic Drive-in, 81 Grill and Bar, Community State Bank, Eagle, Propane, Roller Station, Casa Teja, Sparky's Eatery, Studio 51 Hair Salon, Twenty Twenty, the Fire Department, and EMS.

LONG AWAITED PAVILION HAS BEGUN

Many years ago the town acquired the old Lee Lumber property on W 1st Street. Shortly after there were ideas of making it a park or building a community building. The years went on and the town purchased several used buildings with intentions to erect them on this property at some future date. In the meantime, Richard Simunek purchased the adjoining land to the south and wanted to donate it to the town. Many years passed and nothing happened, Simunek proposed building a community building and donating the land he owned to the town but it never got off the ground. It was determined that the 2 used buildings the town bought needed a great deal of work and would be best suited for storage buildings, not for public use.

About a year and a half ago the Hennessey Board of Trustees approved a plan from All About Hennessey to create the "Discover Hennessey" program that would oversee improvement projects and promote Hennessey.

This week the long-awaited pavilion is now underway. Jack Quirk, with All About Hennessey, said, "This is becoming possible with a great deal of help and donations from our community. There is no way this project could become a reality with just town funding." Last Thursday, August, 31st F5 Construction owned by David and Katrina Fuksa donated their services to prepare the site for the fill dirt to elevate the site. The 800 cubic yards of fill dirt was donated by Lightle Sand & Construction and was delivered by Dollar Trucking. David Fuksa said, "We need this much fill to make this sight drain property."

The next step will be constructing the concrete piers that will support the building. These will be installed by Daniel Construction.

Quirk said, "To date, over $90,000 in services have been donated by F5 Construction, Lightle Sand & Construction, Dollar Trucking, Daniel Construction, Hennessey Metal Buildings, and Richard Simunek."

It is important to note that this is a multi-phase project that will continue as more companies and individuals step forward to help with the cost of completing it. So far Phase One is fully funded and includes erecting a 50x100 pavilion with open sides. Phase two will include adding 25-foot additions to each side making the total structure size 100x100. Phase 3 will include a concrete floor. Additional phases would include closing in the building and adding restrooms, kitchen, HVAC, etc. If you have the means and would like to help bring this project to completion please contact Jack Quirk at Jack@KJFilmWorks.com.

Quirk said, "We are very fortunate to have such a high quality of local contractors that are willing to come forward and support our community."

Fresh Peach Cobbler

The end of the summer always has me thinking about the big ol boxes of fresh peaches that are the juiciest and most delicious treat that I can think of! We know that there are so many ways to enjoy those fresh peaches, but a homemade peach cobbler in a cast iron skillet is at the top of that list for me. The skinning and slicing of the peaches is the most time consuming but good things are worth it, right?! I have a yummy cobbler-shortcut recipe that I have shared that uses a cake mix as the shortcut; but this recipe comes from a favorite bed and breakfast cookbook that I purchased years ago and I like to follow it exactly. I have tried using olive oil instead of vegetable oil and cannot recommend that. 0 out of 10 on using the olive oil instead of vegetable oil! I do not like using highly processed oils in my foods as I know they are inflammatory..but I need to keep trying to find a good substitute. Until then, just limit how often you use it.

Peach Cobbler in a skillet

8-10 fresh peaches 2 c sugar
¼ c butter 2 tsp baking powder
½ c brown sugar 1 tsp salt
1 tsp cinnamon 2 eggs
2 c flour 1 c oil

Preheat oven to 350°F. Peel and slice 8-10 fresh peaches and spread in the bottom of a buttered cast iron skillet. (note: the cobbler topping is pretty thick, so I like to make sure my peach layering is substantial!) Slice ¼ c butter and scatter over the peaches. Mix together ½ c brown sugar and 1 tsp cinnamon and sprinkle this mixture over the top of the peaches and butter. In a medium bowl combine the flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt. In another bowl beat the 2 eggs with a fork until frothy and add the oil to the eggs, mixing well until combined. Add the wet ingredients to the dry ingredients and mix. Crumble this mixture all over the brown sugar-cinnamon topped peaches in the skillet. Bake at 350° for 45 minutes or until desired doneness.

You guys, this is it. It is so good! Enjoy it fresh from the oven, piping hot with a scoop of vanilla ice cream..but also enjoy it later cold out of the fridge. It is good!

CLEAN-UP FIRE GETS AWAY

Hennessey Firefighters responded to a controlled burn that got away near the intersection of S. Mitchell Rd and Exxon Road Saturday evening, September 2nd. The storm carrying 100 mph winds brought down several large trees in this yard that were being buried. The south wind helped to carry the fire to the north into the trees near the creek. Firefighters quickly knocked down the fire before it spread any further.
