Saddle Up: The Hazen and Tripp Suit Rodeo Journey

by AAH Amy Smith

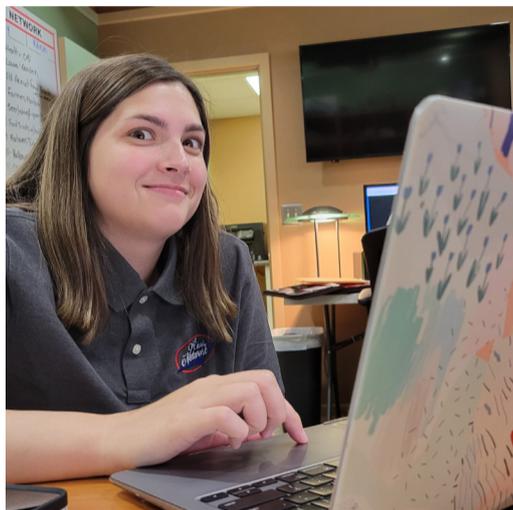

Foreman and Hazen named 2024 State Champion Team Ropers

The Suit brothers, Hazen and Tripp, have been traveling across the country to compete in rodeos, leaving a trail of dust, record times, and an eager determination to get back into the arena for another chance to win it all. The Suit boys are homeschooled due to their busy rodeo lifestyle living in Ames, Oklahoma with their parents, Darin and Shanda, along with their older brother Wyatt. Shanda is a Hennessey graduate and the daughter of Steve and Teresa Oliver. Hazen, a 16-year-old, Sophomore competes in team roping as a heeler and takes part in the Oklahoma High School Rodeo Association. The high school association holds 20 rodeos throughout Oklahoma from August to May, culminating in a State Finals where the top four year-end competitors in each discipline qualify for the National High School Rodeo Finals. The Oklahoma High School Rodeo Association Finals were held in Chickasha, Oklahoma from May 28 to June 2. Hazen and his team roping partner, Foreman Casebolt from Ryan, Oklahoma, placed in all three rounds of competition, winning the aggregate at the finals, and crowned the 2024 Oklahoma High School Rodeo Association State Champion Team Ropers. They are set to compete at the National High School Finals Rodeo in Rock Springs, Wyoming from July 14 to 20. Hazen has had a passion for being a cowboy and roping from a young age. He competes

by Bonny Flesher

The google definition for Purging, An act of removing by cleansing ridding sediments or other undesired elements.

Transitioning into this retirement gig, I have grounded myself from picking up my drawing pencil or paintbrush until I purge. I have found myself engaged in a battle with my closet. It seems to be growing more clothes than it can hold! Some I recognize, but others I swear someone snuck in and added them. These are the clothes we all think we will wear again after losing a few pounds. My ego tells me they shrunk while hanging in the dark. Then there are the shoes; I seem to have a couple of pairs, and I can't find their match. I did try on a pair of heels. After swaying in the air, I wondered if I had a nosebleed from the elevation. I slid those stilts off and caught my balance. The closer my feet are to the ground the better my grace meter shifts to the safe zone.

I can't write about my purging without mentioning the term my close friends use on me (Squirrel). Most of you think of little furry animals, but in my world, friends use it when I tend to veer off from one subject to another. It seems I do this when going through forgotten treasures buried deep in the darkness of my closet.

When you see me driving around loaded down with bags, just keep driving. I'm looking for a dumpster that has room. Seems like I'm not the only one in the midst of purging. On to the next closet and maybe finding the match to the shoes! SQUIRREL!!

Stitching Together Creativity: The Story of Cozy Quilt Barn and Christi Hawk

Christi Hawk's journey into quilting is a testament to her unwavering passion and creativity, a journey that was sparked by her early experiences sewing with her Aunt Billie Haymaker. Her quilting skills flourished during ladies' quilting sessions at the Methodist Church, where she was joined by the likes of Dorthy Hawk, Billie Melendy, and many others.

Growing up in Hennessey, Christi and her husband Jason raised their three children, Tyler, Kaden, and Emily, staying in the same town like a good pattern. Christi previously owned Sandy Hill Designs, a boutique that focused on embroidery for five years, but decided it was time to change the needle and thread by shifting her priorities to her children when they became active with school and sports. Later, she spent seven years teaching classes and selling sewing machines at Prairie Quilt in Hennessey.

Basting, or shall we say putting together her talent, passion, and knowledge, she opened the doors to Cozy Quilt Barn. She aims to educate and inspire quilters of all ages, whether you are a novice or a quilt master. Cozy Quilt Barn not only sells fabric and quilting supplies but also offers a range of weekly quilting classes and hosts quilting retreats throughout the year. These 3-day retreats provide a supportive environment for quilters to start new projects, get a fresh new idea from the Cozy Quilt Barn selection, or simply finish up an existing project while connecting with others and finding inspiration. Cozy Quilt Barn also provides longarm quilting services and services sewing machines. When you step inside the Cozy Quilt Barn, you can feel the coziness as Christi states, "We're cozy! Our mission is to see everyone leave Cozy Quilt Barn with a smile." You can find Cozy Quilt Barn at 15442 St Hwy in Hennessey. During the Road to Oklahoma Shop Hop from June 1st to July 31st, their hours are Monday-Friday 9 am to 5 pm, and Saturdays, 9 am to 2 pm. Regular hours will be Thursday and Friday, 9 am to 5 pm, and Saturday, 9 am to 2 pm. For further information, you can call or text Christi at 405-853-5893. ### Food from your Garden

Garden season is in full swing. Just in case you need another idea to help you use up your bounty; this is a recipe that our Nana made for us when we were young. Super simple and so delicious!

Garden Skillet Dinner

- 1lb ground beef (or ground pork)
- seasoning for meat
- garden veggies (tomatoes, zucchini, squash, onion, peppers, etc)
- rice (cooked)

Brown the ground beef (we used ground pork because that's what was in the freezer) in a large skillet. Season the meat with your preferred seasonings while browning. We like to cook diced onion with the meat so the onions will soften, and we think it imparts the best flavor when cooked with the meat. Favorite seasonings for the meat include garlic, seasoned salt, Cavendar's, and Italian seasoning blend. Season to your taste preference. We also add basil from the garden, picked fresh and chopped.

When the meat is cooked (and drained), add your garden veggies to the skillet; just throw them on top of the cooked meat, it will work, we promise! Tomatoes and sliced zucchini and/or squash are what Nana used to use so are our favorite additions. But really the options are endless here!

Add the sliced veggies to the skillet over the cooked meat and sprinkle some more seasoning over the veggies. Cover with a lid and allow the mix to steam with the lid on over medium heat for at least thirty minutes. Remove lid and stir mixture. If the veggies aren't soft enough for your liking, replace lid and allow to cook longer.

We usually end up allowing it to cook with the lid on over medium heat for closer to an hour (after the meat has been cooked).

You will know it's ready to eat when the veggies are as soft as you want them to be!

In the mean time, while your veggies are cooking, make some rice. Our favorite way to eat this skillet meal is in a bowl over rice.

Garden skillet rice bowls are a little time consuming, only because you need to allow the veggies time to cook, but it so very delicious!! And it is special to eat from your own garden.

We hope you give it a try! Happy Gardening! @okseasonedsisters

in various team roping events and associations across the United States. When not competing at team ropings or rodeos, Hazen enjoys riding young horses and doing ranch work.

Tripp, an 11-year-old 5th grader, competes in team roping as a header and breakaway calf roping in the Oklahoma Junior High Rodeo Association. The Junior High Association holds 16 rodeos throughout Oklahoma from August to May, followed by State Finals. Tripp was honored with being named the Oklahoma Junior High Association All Around Rookie of the Year. This award is awarded to the overall points leader at the end of the year who is competing in their first year as part of the association.

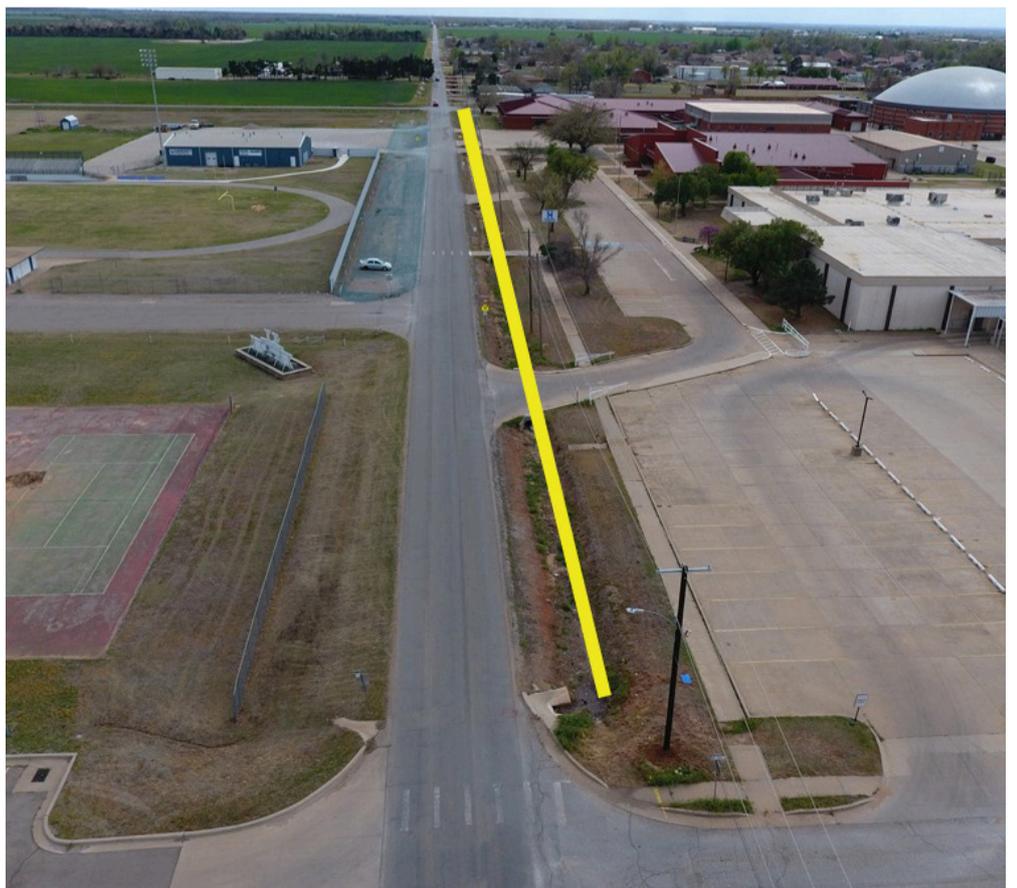

Tripp showing off his Rookie of the Year Belt Buckle

The Oklahoma Junior High Rodeo Association Finals took place in Chickasha, Oklahoma from May 16 to 19. Tripp and his team roping partner, Drey Taylor from Pocasset, Oklahoma, ended the year in 5th place, narrowly missing qualifying for the National Junior High Finals Rodeo held in Des Moines, Iowa from June 23 to 29. Like his brother, Tripp has had a passion for roping and being a cowboy from a young age. Along with ranching and roping, he also enjoys raising goats. So when you see these two young cowboys, tip your hat and bid them a congratulations on a job well done in a sport that takes courage, commitment, and perseverance.

SCHOOL DRAINAGE PROJECT HAS NEW LIFE

About a year ago, the School sent out bids to improve drainage and cover the ditch along N. Mitchell Rd in front of the school. No one wanted to bid on the project due to the large waterline belonging to the Town of Hennessey that runs in that ditch, so the project was put on hold. Last week, the Hennessey Board of Trustees voted to accept a grant allowing the town to relocate these lines. The school portion of this project is still on their radar, but it will now wait for funds to be available.

Gradeworks Construction won the bid, and the town hopes the work can be done before school starts.

INTEGRIS BASS BAPTIST HEALTH CHANGES NAME TO INTEGRIS HEALTH ENID HOSPITAL

Baptist Health Center has changed to INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital. The name change was officially announced to the hospital board members, stakeholders, and caregivers on June 10 and has been implemented throughout the hospital campus and clinics.

The name signifies a "strategic evolution" of the system's brand and identity and begins a new chapter for the Northwest Oklahoma hospital.

"The Bass family is a pillar of our community, in which we are grateful for them allowing us to carry their name for so long," says Keaton Francis, the chief hospital executive at INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital. "As we reflect on our rich history of providing care in Northwest Oklahoma, we are proud of the role INTEGRIS Bass Baptist Health Center has played in serving the community for so many years."

The name change follows the INTEGRIS Health organization's continuing integration, growth, and naming style standardization across all locations and enterprises. With the change, comes an INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital logo and rebranding.

"A lot has changed since our hospital opened its doors in 1910. Over the decades, we've changed, too. This name change reflects our commitment to the community we care for. Some of the changes are subtle, but some are quite profound," says Francis. "You will see clinic name changes, beautiful new monument and wayfinding signs and new INTEGRIS Health beacon signs as INTEGRIS Bass Baptist Health Center transitions to INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital."

INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital will continue to provide excellent care and is committed to delivering medical services to our community. With a legacy of excellence, we are here to be your most trusted partner for health.

For more information about INTEGRIS Health Enid Hospital or the services provided, please visit integrishhealth.org/enid or call 580-233-2300.
