FOURTH OF JULY IN HENNESSEY

Hennessey, are you ready for some fun this Fourth of July?

Our first event is the Great Race that morning. Get ready to run like you're being chased by a firecracker! It's the perfect excuse to work off those donut calories while laughing and sweating with your best buds. And hey, it's all for a good cause because 100% of the proceeds will support the Back to School Bash! Picture it: you and your crew racing around the school ground, completing wacky tasks at each stop, like trying to lick your elbow or doing your best chicken dance in public. Remember, it's not about winning, It's about looking ridiculous and having a blast! And check this out - a team of 3 can join the fun for just $50. That's like buying a few snow cones at a carnival but with way more excitement and potential for embarrassing, hilarious moments. All participants will meet at 8 AM at the elementary school playground, which will start at 9 AM sharp. The events will take place around the school, and Mitchell Road will be closed to ensure added safety for all participants. Sign up in advance at the Town Hall by JUNE 27th!!!

Then head to the Pool and Splash Pad at noon for FREE SWIM. The pool will close at 5 PM to start the Cardboard and Duct Tape Boat Races.

If you've been skipping the cardboard and duct tape boat races, you've been missing out on some seriously sticky situations and wet cardboard catastrophes! Imagine trying to navigate a pool in a vessel made entirely of cardboard and duct tape while trying not to sink - it's like the ultimate test of engineering and waterproofing skills! Plus, the added challenge of coordinating a team of four to paddle their way to victory is a recipe for COMEDY GOLD. So grab your cardboard paddles and get ready for a day of laughter, creativity, and hopefully not too many soggy surprises! The cost is $20 per team, and you must sign up by June 27th at the Town Hall! Under 18 must have parental consent.

Then, following the boat races, there will be a Ping Pong Ball Drop Race. Buy your balls for a chance to win HALF THE POT! The Ping Pong balls will be sent flying down the pool slide; if your numbered ball is the first to make it over the finishing line, you can win BIG MONEY!! Balls are only $1 each, and you can purchase your balls at both banks, Tim Riddle at CSB or Chasity at Interbank, or head over to the Town Hall with Shelley Burch or any other Lion's Club member!

Hennessey is set to light up the sky at nightfall with a firework extravaganza! Round up your loved ones for a good ol' hometown BLAST. You can kick back in the stadium seats on the football field or chill in the comfort of your car nearby or on lawn chairs in front of

CHEROKEE STRIP BBQ: WHERE FAMILY, QUALITY, AND A TOUCH OF NOSTALGIA MEET.

At 235 S Perkins Rd, Stillwater, OK. Is the location of Cherokee Strip BBQ. Not only has it been open in Stillwater since 1992, but it also has connections to Hennessey, OK. Brett and Erin Brownlee are the owners with Brett being an alum of Hennessey High School. But the connection doesn't stop there. If you attended the 5 and 6 grades between 1966-1984 and played basketball, you had Brett's mom Shirley Brownlee as your coach. Plus, she taught 6th-grade science. Now even though this story is about Cherokee Strip

BBQ, I have to write about Brett's early morning prep helper for many years, his mom. I will never refer to her as Shirley. In my world, she will always be Mrs. Brownlee. Her own family shared her with many. With her no-nonsense approach in the classroom and on the basketball court, many life lessons were taught. We also had Mr. Brownlee, aka High pockets as one of our biggest cheerleaders. After retirement, the Brownlees were transplanted to Stillwater. For many, they were a big part of our journey growing up in Hennessey We would drive up to Cherokee Strip BBQ and see her red Volkswagen parked out front we knew we were getting great BBQ and an extra treat to visit. A few years ago, I caught a pose of Mrs Brownlee at a class reunion. I had the privilege of painting that pose that took me back to an old grade school gym on the corner of main in Hennessey. The gym was full of 5th and 6th girls spread out dribbling their basketballs. Mrs Brownlee was in the front of the group, pointing the direction she wanted us to move. She taught basic basketball. I got to deliver that watercolor to her, and it was my last visit with her. It was my gift! Brett told me even though his mom is driving her red Volkswagen thru the streets of heaven she is still with him every day at the restaurant. Her impact has stayed with many of us. I asked Brett what he wanted people to take away from eating at Cherokee Strip BBQ. What sets them apart? Answer-family-owned, fresh quality products cooked daily with all the sides. We had to wrap up our visit, it was getting passed Brett's bedtime. Five in the morning comes early. Not only does Cherokee Strip BBQ offer in house family atmosphere, catering is also an option just reach out at 405-377-2244. The bottom line is that they care about delivering the best! If you visit the restaurant, you might listen closely you may hear a Beep Beep from heaven!

the practice field. Just a heads up, there's some construction going on in the area, so park your vehicle in the school parking lots across the street or near the dome. Please do not park on East Oklahoma Road. The Fire Department will use that road in case of emergency.

And make sure to say hello to Jack, our live-streaming video guy, who will be beaming all the fun straight to your screen on Facebook Live, if you can't make it in person. Let's spend the day together, have fun, stay safe, and make some great memories! photos by AAH Jack Quirk

Donald Ray Cospers Obituary

The funeral for Donald Ray Cospers, 88 will be at 10:00 AM Monday June 24, 2024 at First United Methodist Church where he had been a member for years. He was Chairperson of the Board of Trustees for many years and was the church's "Honey-Do- Man. Services will be officiated by Rev. Sandy Shepherd. Burial will follow at Hennessey Cemetery under the direction of Cordry-Gritz Funeral Home.

Don was born May 6, 1936 in the Pawhuska Hospital in Pawhuska, Oklahoma to David Carlton and Ardith Grayum Cospers. The family moved to McLeansboro, IL in 1942. Don graduated from McLeansboro High School in 1954. He married Patricia Wylie on April 1, 1958. To this union two children were born, Starla Lynn and Donald Blake.

Don started working at an early age as a farmer's helper, he then worked as a butcher in the local grocery store. He later went to work in the oilfield and in 1969 moved his family to Healdton OK. In 1976 he went to work for Sun Oil Co. and retired from Kerr- McGee Oil Co. in 2001.

He played Merchant Softball in Illinois playing approximately 100 games per summer. The league consisted of other teams and some penitentiaries. He and his teammate Carl Mauck (later a San Diego Charger) had many fun stories about those days. Don's favorite story was when he broke his arm during a game, iced it in the dugout, continued to play center field and then hit a home run over the fence a few innings later. Don raced cars in high school, unbeknownst to his parents. He was beaten only once in four counties. He went through seventeen transmissions during his racing career. The local dealer sold him transmissions at cost and labor free because Don's racing proved to other boys that the dealer sold fast cars. Don was a sort of marketing expert for the dealer!

Don was a member of Hennessey United Methodist Church, Powder and String Club and the Hennessey Lions Club. He was also volunteer of the year at Canton Lake. They spent many summers camping with their Hennessey friends and fur babies at Canton. There was a special place in Don's heart for the children of Hennessey each Christmas when he was Santa. He enjoyed this honor for several years. Don was an avid sports fan! He loved his St. Louis Cardinals, Kansas City Chiefs and Pro Basketball. He also loved college sports and was a huge Boomer Sooner Softball fan!!! There was never a moment that he wasn't listening to or watching some kind of sports.

Don is survived by his wife Pat of sixty-six years, daughter Starla, son Blake, five grandchildren Teysa Woodward, Laryn Ann Fuksa, Cody Cospers, Katie Cospers, four great-grandchildren, Braelyn Donn Fuksa, Samuel Todd Battiest, Taety Ann Fuksa-

Sanders, and Ayla Ruth Fuksa-Sanders; one brother Harold and wife Jackie Cospers of Logan, Ohio, and Bodhi his little fur baby.

Don was preceded in death by his parents, and one grandson Michael Bradyn Fuksa. Memorial donations may be made in his name to Furever Friends Animal Rescue in Enid with the funeral home serving as custodian of the fund.

Honorary pall bearers are Jack Bowers, Floyd Hardin, Ross Hardin, Donnie Smith, Dave Stover, Brad Ruphard, and Larry Settle

ROLL OVER WRECK

Story by AAH Shelley Muzny

Thursday, June 20th at about 6 pm, a Ford pickup driven by Aaron Muzny and his son Cole were traveling east on Hwy 51 near the intersection of NS 2800, 7 west of Hennessey when they had a blowout on the front driver's side tire. The truck crossed the center line, went through a barbed wire fence, and the pickup landed on its side on an oil lease. The occupants were wearing seatbelts and were not seriously injured. Aaron and Cole were taken to St. Mary's Regional Hospital by private vehicle for evaluation. Hennessey Fire Department, LifeEMS, Highway Patrol, and Kingfisher County Sheriff were on the scene. photos by AAH Shelley Muzny

BOX TRUCK CARRYING MAIL OVERTURNS NEAR DOVER

Story By AAH Jack Quirk

A box truck transporting mail to Cherokee and Alva crashed and overturned, coming to rest on its roof in the median around 4 am on Friday, June 21st. The accident occurred near the junction of Hwy 81 and 690 Rd. just north of Dover, resulting in the closure of the northbound lane for several hours as emergency response teams cleared the area. The driver sustained minor injuries and was examined by LifeEMS. The mail was transferred to another vehicle, and its journey resumed later that day. The incident was managed by Dover Fire, Hennessey PD, OHP, LifeEMS, and the Kingfisher County Sheriff's Office. Photo by AAH Jack Quirk.

Hennessey Lady Eagle Summer Shoot Out: A Success and Growth for Future Years

By Coach Richardson

It was the first year for the Hennessey Lady Eagle Summer Shoot Out. We hosted teams from all over the state. Some of the teams included Class B State Champion Lomega along with traditionally strong Cashion and Hooker and 6A Southmoore. The plan is to build on this year's event for the future.

We played really well as a team with wins over Southmoore, Chisholm, and Watonga. We also played well against Cashion, Lomega, and Hooker. This wraps up our summer schedule. This was the last of four camps we attended this summer playing 46 games. It was a great summer and saw lots of improvement by some young players along with getting some players who were injured last year back.
