NATIONAL ELECTRIC CORRIDOR SCRAPPED

OKLAHOMA CITY - In a recent development, the Biden Administration's Department of Energy has decided to scrap the 18-mile-wide electric transmission corridor initially planned for Oklahoma, following express opposition from Drummond and Speaker of the House Hilbert. Both state leaders were informed of the decision after engaging in discussions with senior department officials.

Oklahoma Attorney General Gentner Drummond took a firm stance against the proposed Delta-Plains National Interest Electric Transmission Corridor, a 645-mile project that would have run from the panhandle of Oklahoma to the Arkansas border. This corridor, part of a larger initiative by the U.S. Department of Energy to expand the nation's power grid, had not yet been finalized for development. Drummond argued that the project posed a threat to Oklahoma property owners and offered no tangible benefits to a state that was a net energy producer.

In a letter addressed to U.S. Energy Secretary Jennifer Granholm, Drummond expressed his opposition to the corridor, labeling the potential use of Federal Eminent Domain as federal overreach. He vowed to take all lawful measures to protect the private property rights of Oklahoma farmers and ranchers. Drummond also commended Oklahoma House Speaker-Elect Kyle Hilbert for his resolution to explore all available legislative actions to block the corridor from being established in the state.

The proposed corridor, ranging from 4 to 18 miles in width, would have stretched across the entirety of Oklahoma. Drummond remained resolute in his opposition to the project.

TOWN OF HENNESSEY INTRODUCES CREDIT CARD FEE FOR UTILITY PAYMENTS STARTING MARCH 1ST, 2025

Starting on March 1st, 2025, residents who pay their utility bill using a credit card will incur a credit card fee of 2.75%. Tiffany Tillman, Town Administrator, mentioned in the meeting on December 10th that the town has collected $684,181.40. Applying the 2.75% fee, the town has paid $18,814.99 in credit card fees.

For all other payment methods through the PSN online payment portal on the town's website, there is a 50¢ fee per payment. However, those who have set up ACH payments from their bank account on the 10th of each month do not incur a fee since this payment method is cost-free for the town.

The credit card fee will also be applicable to permits and pool passes. Any payments made to the Town of Hennessey using a credit card will be subject to this fee. This is not uncommon, many businesses are adding credit card surcharges to customers to offset fees.

Where are they now?

Jason Wilson

Jason Wilson was raised west of Hennessey in the Lacey community, the son of Jim and the late Julia Wilson. He is one of three children they raised on the farm. John the oldest son, lives in Illinois, and sister Jill lives in Shawnee. Jason excelled in track and cross country. He received All-State honors in cross country. Jason graduated from Hennessey High School in 1991. After graduation, he attended Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee to study pastoral ministry. After five years, Jason decided that was not his calling and went to work with computers while continuing to be a music minister. He currently works for KPMG LLP and will complete 25 years with the company in February.

Jason and his wife, Amanda, have been married for 11 years. Jason and Amanda have four children (2 biological and two adopted) and two grandchildren. Isaac (25) is married and teaches English in Arkansas. Isaac and his wife have two children. Levi (22) is married, lives in OKC, and is finishing a pastoral ministry degree from Oklahoma Baptist University. Their adopted daughter is 14 years old and is currently an 8th grader, and their adopted son is 11 years old in 6th grade. Both children attend North Rock Creek Schools. Jason and his family live in Shawnee, as well as his father Jim. Jason has always been a man of God and cares not only for his family but his friends and community. His smile is contagious, and so is his kindness. Jason's hard work, loyalty, and dedication are seen through his work and being the son, husband, and dad that he is. AAH, Shelley Muzny

MERRY
Christmas

Let the beauty of the Christmas season fill your heart with hope and your days with joy.

-HENNESSEY'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER-

From the Pulpit ~ First United Methodist Church Rev. Sandy Shepherd

From Isiah 9: 2-6: "The people walking in darkness have seen a great light. On those living in a pitch-dark land, light has dawned. 3 You have made the nation great; you have increased its joy. They rejoiced before you as with joy at the harvest, as those who divide plunder rejoice. 4 As on the day of Midian, you've shattered the yoke that burdened them, the staff on their shoulders, and the rod of their oppressor 5 Because every boot of the thundering warriors, and every garment rolled in blood will be burned, fuel for the fire. 6 A child is born to us, a son is given to us, and authority will be on his shoulders. He will be named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace."

When I was a child I do not remember any time that was so hard to wait then the weeks leading up to Christmas. Seeing the wrapped presents being brought out, placed under the tree, and then being told you cannot touch or shake them. That was so incredibly hard to not give into temptation to guess what was under the tree with my name. What kind of presents were there waiting for me under the tree?

Advent, the four weeks leading up to Christmas, is the season when we reflect and dream about what God has promised to give us-A Messiah. The Old Testament is filled with the words of what the Messiah would bring and the those who had placed their trust in the Lord dreamed about what God would give them in the form of a Messiah. The words of promise of the ultimate gift that God would give humanity are found in the book of Isiah given about 700 years before Jesus would be born. Talk about anticipation and having to wonder what kind of gift God would give to a weak and weary world.

During Advent we don't just anticipate gifts we receive abstract promises but the real promises of hope, peace, joy and love that will heal and transform the world. Christmas reminds us that we actually receive, in the coming of the Messiah, actual hope, actual peace, actual joy, and actual love. God's promises can feel delayed, like we are kids waiting to open these long awaited gifts, but they actually came and are here already, no more waiting involved. This Christmas let us celebrate the real gifts God has promised to us and also has already delivered.

Life advice from the okseasonedsisters and Ross Geller, "PIVOT! PIVOT! PIVOT!"

You can practice the pivot in something as simple as changing your plan a little for the day because something came up. Or adjusting a recipe to work for you because you don't have everything the recipe calls for. Pivot! You can substitute milk & vinegar for buttermilk. There are many solutions to roadblocks in the kitchen; much like there are many solutions to roadblocks in your life. Look for them...be receptive to advice from respected, wise people.

Somewhere less simple but soo important to learn to pivot is in relationships. You have to be receptive. Don't be too stubborn. Pivot! Keep having the same argument? Pivot! Pivot! Pivot! Seek a new point of view. Approach the issue from a different angle. Be willing to listen. Like really listen. Keep pivoting until you find a compromise!

We're not sure anything requires mastering the art of pivoting more than parenting! You can't afford to be rigid. Don't get stuck in your ways or too caught up in how you thought it'd be. Pivot! Adjust your parenting styles for each child. What works/worked with one may not work for another. Pivot! Don't be too hard on your parents for their choices leading you to over-correct in your own parenting. Often people who believe they were denied something early in life inevitably give too much later on. In parenting this can cause their children to become entitled or ungrateful. Instead of over correction just - you guessed it- PIVOT!

In this holiday season remember to be gracious. Pivot where you can to bring peace to those around you... especially those closest to you. Pivot by adjusting your traditions to work for your family without stress or argument. Pivot by not worrying about spending a certain amount of money on gifts when something heartfelt, handmade or even hand written would be priceless. It takes being open to examining yourself and we all know how hard that can be. But be honest with yourself and decide what is really important. Holding onto how it's always been or what you've always done? Maybe, just maybe...pivot! Find a way, friends. Merry Christmas to you and yours. With love, OKSeasonedSisters

HENNESSEY UNITED LEADERSHIP CLASS ANGELS

The Hennessey United Leadership Class consists of two high school classes, with 20 students in each class. The class is organized and taught by Cathy Howard. Between the two classes, they were divided into ten teams. Each team received $150.00 to go and shop for an Angel off the Angel tree. The students helped ten children this Christmas by buying and wrapping gifts. Each child receives four presents. AAH, Shelley Muzny

NEW BUSINESS AT 409 CENTER NICHOLSON MONUMENT

The 409 Center is excited to announce that Nicholson Monument has joined its complex as of Tuesday, December 10th. Kelly Bullis, the owner of the 409 Center, recognized the significant value of partnering with a reputable company that can deliver much-needed services to both the underserved community and the neighboring regions. Her recent personal experience in searching for these services revealed a significant need, as she had to travel hours to find the right provider. After interviewing multiple companies and researching their histories, Kelly determined that Nicholson Monument met all her criteria.

Established in 1956, Nicholson Monument is a family-owned and operated business known for its exceptional reputation in delivering quality products in a timely manner. With a combined experience of 106 years, they have become one of the largest retail monument businesses in the state of Oklahoma. Their expertise ensures mastery of their craft and a commitment to providing quality products with sensitivity and respect for their customers.

We invite you to stop by the 409 Center to view samples of headstones and the various color options available. Hours of operation are Monday through Friday, from 9 AM to 5 PM, and weekend or after-hours appointments can be arranged upon request.

For more information, feel free to contact Kelly at 405-368-3443.
