WAUKOMIS FIRE CHIEF WELCOMED HOME AFTER TRAIN ACCIDENT

Waukomis Fire Chief Bobby Kokojan returned home Tuesday, July 29th, after spending more than five weeks in the hospital recovering from serious injuries sustained when a northbound train struck the combine he was operating south of Waukomis on Saturday, June 21st.

Drivers along Highway 81 between Hennessey and Waukomis witnessed a powerful show of support as fire trucks from across the region lined the highway in tribute. Departments from Hennessey, Waukomis, Hunter, Pioneer, Drummond, Enid, Douglas, and Lahoma, along with Garfield County Emergency Management joined in the escort to bring their chief home.

Around 50 firefighters, family members, and friends gathered in Chief Kokojan's front yard, cheering and waving signs as he arrived. The mood was emotional but joyous, as Bobby was finally back.

HENNESSEY'S BACK-TO-SCHOOL BASH STARTS STUDENTS OFF IN STYLE

The annual Back-to-School Bash took place in Hennessey on Sunday, August 3, 2025, as many students gathered at First Christian Church to receive brand-new backpacks and school supplies to help them start the year off right.

The Hennessey Fire Department manned the grill, serving up free hot dogs to everyone who came through. After the supplies were handed out, the celebration continued with a free swim at the Hennessey Pool from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Each year, organizers plan to supply about a third of all local 1st through 8th grade students, along with 40 high schoolers - roughly 175 students total. This year, 169 of those students received supplies at the event.

Thanks to the volunteers, donors, and community members who made the evening a success, many Hennessey students are now better prepared for the school year ahead. Photos by AAH Shelley Muzny

How Does One Book a Trip to Ireland on a Whim?

By AAH Amy Smith

Easy, just have an aunt living there with her new Irish husband!

For all my life, my Aunt Annita has always lived far away from where she once called home. But no matter how far she was, I always kept close, sending letters back in the days when text messages weren't even a thing. When she found her home in Ireland, I knew this was my chance. I didn't think twice, I booked the flight.

Mahon Falls, an 80-metre (262-foot) waterfall nestled in Waterford's Comeragh Mountains.

Would I have gone solo? Let's be honest, probably not. Luckily, I had my knight in shining armor, Gary, by my side, making sure I didn't wander off, get lost, or accidentally look the wrong way when crossing the street (because our "right-left-right" does not work there!).

For five magical days, our home was Waterford, Ireland. We explored cobblestone streets and rolling green hills, popped into pubs with live music that practically begged you to tap along, and drove the coastline of the Irish Sea. Finding seashells in colors I didn't even know existed, like nature had its own secret paint palette just for Ireland.

We ventured to Mahon Falls, where waterfalls tumbled down towering cliffs and sheep grazed, ignoring all of our "baaa" calls. Castles, of course, were on my bucket list, and Kilkenny Castle did not disappoint. The beauty of its architecture inside and out left me speechless (which doesn't happen often). As I exited the Castle, I told the security guard, "The only thing missing is the dungeons." He grinned and pointed down some stairs: "There you go."

Kilkenny Castle, Gary, Amy, Annita, & Al

Let me tell you, nothing gets your heart racing like standing amongst dungeons where history feels like it's breathing down your neck... Straight back up the stairs I went.

Traveling with a local is the secret ingredient for an unforgettable trip. My aunt's husband, Albert (Al), is a retired Waterford Crystal Master glass cutter. He took us to a local glassblowing workshop where Gary and I got to cut our own glass. Gary's piece was display-case material, while mine belonged in the mishap pile. But hey, it's all about the experience, right?

What's a trip to Ireland without golf? Gary and I hit up a municipal course in Waterford and quickly learned that walking nine holes (instead of zipping around in a cart) will absolutely humble you. Al pulled some strings with his buddy Dennis and got us a tee time on Faithlegg Golf Course, established in 1783. 1783! Think about that, that's older than most of our country back home. The course was "lovely," as they say in Ireland. We couldn't have asked for better weather, and the hospitality? Omg, let's just say we were treated like royalty.

Ever have vacation food letdowns? Not here. And we had it all from traditional Irish breakfasts with black and white pudding (which I elected not to Google what I was eating), to hearty Guinness beef stew, to Indian food so good I am craving more! Even the pub food was phenomenal! The only thing that threw me off was tipping. As a former waitress, not tipping feels... wrong. But in Ireland, it's just not a thing.

There were other little cultural shockers, like the lack of air conditioning. A cool blast of AC spoils this girl, so let's just say I had a few "glowing" moments. But with a temp not going much above 70, I suppose they are used to it. And the Irish are big on recycling and air-drying their clothes, which I found hilarious because...hello...how does anything ever dry when it rains every other hour? But where there's rain, there are flowers! The most beautiful blooms you'll ever see. Even the weeds are stunning.

Then there's Guinness. The pride and joy of Ireland. With every pint perfectly poured, I cringed (it's just not my drink), but Gary? He happily had his fair share. Thankfully, never enough to get "pissed" as the Irish call it, which is something I'd probably never get used to saying with a straight face.

Faithlegg - a magical golf course

While spending one day in Dublin, we traded Waterford's laid-back charm for the hustle and bustle of city life. Searching for something to do, we found a stunning theater showcasing "Riverdance 30." Boy howdy, did they have the moves! And then there was St. Patrick's Cathedral, "breathtaking" doesn't even begin to cover it. The history within the walls is the kind of tranquility that makes you pause and just feel "Insert chills!" Pictures and words will never compare to the sheer beauty of this place.

All in all, this trip was one for the books, and we're looking forward to our return. If Ireland taught me anything, it's that life isn't about luck. It's about slowing down, noticing the miracles that surround us, loving one another, and not letting life pass you by without having a good pint (just... maybe don't get "pissed" while you're at it).

LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT HOSTS INAUGURAL STUDENT ATHLETIC TRAINER CAMP

AAH, Shelley Muzny

Brandon Scott and Levi Copeland hosted the first Student Athletic Trainer Camp on August 1-2 at the local fire department. Both Brandon and Levi are state-certified instructors. The idea for the camp originated with Marcy Pribyl, who noticed that her daughter, Jentry, had to travel three hours to reach the nearest camp.

The cost of the camp was $120 per participant, attracting students from Hennessey, Guthrie, Garber, and Crescent. The initial evening class focused on CPR/AED and had 14 participants. On the second day, 11 students learned various skills, including taping techniques from Coach H, C-Spine stabilization, backboarding, concussion protocol, and weather-related injury management.

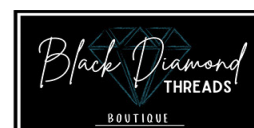

Marcy hopes to establish this camp as an annual event and aims to secure sponsorships to help cover costs for the students. The camp emphasized the importance of effective communication with paramedics, a skill valuable for both athletic trainers and everyday life.

Jewel Babiak
Obituary

Jewel Babiak was an angel even before she got to heaven! It is with deep sadness that we announce that Jewel passed on July 21, 2025 at the age of 89. She was an amazing wife, mother, grandmother, teacher, and friend who was known for her kind, gentle, and giving nature. She will be forever missed by all who knew her and loved her.

Jewel lived in Hennessey with her husband, Paul, for over 40 years and was active in the First United Methodist Church, Friends of the Library, and Hennessey Lions Club. Even at the tender age of 89, she still mowed her yard, pulled in the neighbors’ trash cans, and would do anything for anyone that needed something done.

Jewel will now be with her husband, Paul, in heaven along with her parents and many brothers and sisters who have gone before her. Jewel leaves a legacy of two siblings; Tom with wife, Dorothy, and Darlene, three children; Brian, with wife, Jan; Karen with husband Warren; and Kelly, with husband, Loc; and four grandchildren: Chantelle, Christopher, Jason, and Cai.

A celebration of life gathering honoring Jewel will be held at Hennessey First United Methodist Church on Friday, August 22nd at 4PM. Please RSVP before August 11th by contacting the church at (405) 853-2569.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in honor of Jewel Babiak may be made to the following organizations - Special Forces Chapter 32-50 Ladies Auxiliary, Hennessey First United Methodist Church, Hennessey Lions Club, Friends of the Hennessey Library (FOL), or to the charity of your choice. Cordry-Gritz Funeral Home will act as custodian, P. O. Box 125, Hennessey, OK 73742.

POWERING A RURAL LEGACY: CIMARRON ELECTRIC HITS 2,000 DAYS WITHOUT A LOST-TIME ACCIDENT

In a field where reliability and community matter most, Cimarron Electric Cooperative, based in Kingfisher, Oklahoma, has achieved a remarkable safety milestone - 2,000 consecutive days without a lost-time accident as of July 29, 2025.

According to its website, Cimarron Electric Cooperative serves nine counties in Oklahoma, according to its website: Cimarron operating 22 and delivering electricity to substations across more than 4,596 miles of power lines, delivering electricity to around 18,000 meters.

Here’s to the next milestone, and to the daily safety culture that makes such success possible! Celebrating 2,000 days without a lost-time accident isn’t just a number; it’s a testament to a cooperative built on trust, service, and care. Photo Provided

BRUSH FIRE SOUTHWEST OF HENNESSEY
CONTAINED IN EXTREME TEMPS

Firefighters from Hennessey and Dover spent several hours battling a brush fire Tuesday afternoon, July 29th, along ND2850 between EW 670 and 680 Roads, southwest of Hennessey.

Crews worked in triple-digit heat to contain the fire, which was located in a rural area with no structures at risk. Despite the extreme temperatures, firefighters managed to keep the blaze from spreading.

Kingfisher County Emergency Management was also on scene, providing support throughout the operation.
