INJURED FIREFIGHTER NEEDS HELP

Our community has always taken pride in looking out for one another, especially those who have dedicated their lives to serving others. Today, we are asking for that same support for one of our own.

Ty Gardner, a retired veteran and devoted volunteer firefighter, was recently injured in the line of duty. Ty was enroute to the hospital to be treated for smoke inhalation after the Hitchcock fire. Where he then suffered a massive heart attack. Ty is currently fighting for his life.

Ty, and his family, are well known throughout the Hennessey community, where they have built a reputation of kindness, service, and always being there when someone needs a helping hand.

Ty is someone many in our community know not just by name, but by his actions. He has consistently stepped up to help those in need—whether it be fellow veterans, the wounded, or families facing hardship. His willingness to serve and give back has never wavered. Now, Ty needs us.

In response, a donation account has been established by the Hennessey Community Action Team (CAT) at Community State Bank in Hennessey. Donations can also be made through 132 Bible Church via PayPal at 132biblechurch@gmail.com or by mail to 10014 E 610 Rd., Hennessey, OK 73742 (please memo: Gardner Family).

Any contribution, big or small, will make a meaningful difference for Ty and his family as they navigate this difficult time.

If you are able, please consider donating and helping us show Ty the same strength, generosity, and compassion that he has shown so many. Let's stand behind one of our own.

100 Years Young, and Still Making Everyone Else's Day Better

By AAN Jack Quirk

It's not every day you get to celebrate 100 years... and it's definitely not every day half the county shows up to help you do it.

Judge Robert C. "Bob" Lovell hit that milestone this week, and the room was filled with Judges, attorneys, associates, friends, family. State leaders sent along official paperwork, the kind with seals and signatures, to make it clear, this wasn't just any birthday.

The group gathered at the Hennessey Merchantable, Wednesday, March 25 for a luncheon to hang out with Bob.

But if you asked around the room what really stood out, it wasn't the citations. It was Bob.

Associate District Judge Lance Schneider summed it up with a simple idea that's apparently been his secret all along: try to make somebody else's day better. Turns out, if you do that for about 100

MUSIC MAKERS TAKE OVER HENNESSEY FOR HONOR BAND EVENT

HENNESSEY — The Eagle Event Center was filled with the sound of music Thursday, March 26, as hundreds of young musicians gathered for the All-Area Beginner Honor Band.

Twenty middle school bands from across Oklahoma traveled to Hennessey for the daylong clinic and rehearsal, bringing more than 400 students to campus. The event welcomed beginning band students from communities across the region, offering them a chance to learn, collaborate, and perform together.

Throughout the day, students rehearsed in groups under the direction of guest clinicians, working to prepare for the evening performance. Honor band events provide young musicians with valuable experience performing in a large ensemble while also sharpening their skills under experienced leadership.

The day concluded with a 5 p.m. concert inside the Eagle Event Center, where the combined groups showcased the music they had practiced.

The event highlighted both the talent of the students and the strong support for music education across Oklahoma, while bringing a lively and energetic atmosphere to Hennessey. Photos by Cam Griffin.

A YEAR OF PREP... GONE IN 60 SECONDS!

No, we're not talking about Gone in 60 Seconds the movie... this was the annual Town of Hennessey Easter Egg Hunt!

The Hennessey Lions Club, along with several local organizations and businesses, teamed up to scatter 6,100 eggs across the grounds, each packed with goodies and even a few prize numbers. Those lucky finds led to some big wins, including two virtual reality game prizes provided by the Lions Club and Hennessey United.

And just like every year... blink and you missed it. Those eggs didn't stand a chance.

Families also enjoyed face painting, temporary tattoos, and photo ops with the Easter Bunny, making it a full afternoon of fun for kids (and plenty of entertainment for parents watching the chaos unfold). Photos by AAH Libby Seiger and Angie Bruner.

HENNESSEY FARMERETTES ATTEND SPRING COUNTY COUNCIL MEETING

Members of the Hennessey Farmerettes OHCE group attended the Spring County Council meeting on March 25 at the Kingfisher Exhibit Building. The event was hosted by the Happy Homemakers group and featured Zack Smithson as the motivational speaker.

Pictured is Zach Nicholson of the Kingfisher Nazarene Church, who served as the motivational speaker.

During the meeting, Paula Nicholson, group president, accepted an award recognizing the Farmerettes' Points of Excellence. A report was also given on the HUGS program held last December. Lindy Peterson, county educator, noted that through the efforts of County OHCE members, every child received a coat during the Santa's Toyland event.

Delegates at the meeting approved updates to the county bylaws after discussion.

The hosting group decorated the venue in a spring theme and served a variety of refreshments, including quiche, blueberry muffins, fresh fruit, and other baked goods.

Attending from the Farmerettes group were Nicholson, Dot Miller, Margie McConnell, Jamie Aikenhead, DeDee Krueger, Maxine Helgeson, Marge Patocka, Mary Curry, Cheryl McClendon, and Pansy Wheeler. The Hennessey Farmerettes will host the Fall County Council meeting.

A legislative citation, read by Schneiter, walked through Bob's story, from being born in Waukomis in 1926 to graduating from Enid High School in 1944, then heading straight into World War II. He served as a machine gunner in the Army's 9th Armored Division and was part of the historic push at the Bridge at Remagen.

After the war, Bob came home, got his degrees from the University of Tulsa, and got to work. He spent 20 years in banking before serving 16 years as Kingfisher County Judge, earning a reputation for being fair, steady, and the kind of guy you wanted on your side, or at least on the bench.

The legislative honor was presented on behalf of Representative Mike Dobrinski, Senator Darcy Jech, and Senator Chuck Hall.

A second recognition from Governor J. Kevin Stitt, was read by retired District Judge Robert Davis, officially marking Bob's 100th birthday and a lifetime of service. There was even a small mix-up in the reading about which county he served, but nobody seemed too worried about that. When you've got a résumé like Bob's, a typo doesn't slow you down.

At the end of the day, the certificates were nice, but the crowd said it all. A full room, plenty of smiles, and a long line of people waiting to shake his hand.

Not bad for a guy whose only real strategy was just trying to make someone else's day a little better. Happy Birthday Bob!

LONGHORNS HOST FUNDRAISER FOR CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS

The Dover school cafeteria was filled with community support on Sunday, March 29, as many residents and supporters gathered for a lunch fundraiser to help the Dover Longhorns purchase their Oklahoma State Championship rings.

The Longhorns secured their first ever state title on March 7, 2026, with a decisive 49-26 victory over Duke, Oklahoma, capping off a memorable season for the team.

Supporters turned out in strong numbers, enjoying a BBQ meal while contributing to the effort to recognize the players' accomplishment with championship rings. Photos by AAN Jack Quirk.

KINGFISHER COUNTY ISSUES BURN BAN AMID EXTREME FIRE DANGER

KINGFISHER COUNTY — A countywide burn ban is now in effect after Kingfisher County Commissioners voted Monday, March 30, to take action due to extreme fire conditions. The decision was approved unanimously, with support from local fire chiefs.

The ban prohibits burning of grass, brush, trash, and other materials that could ignite a wildfire. Campfires and bonfires are also not allowed during this time.

Some limited exceptions remain in place. Outdoor cooking is permitted on grills or smokers placed on non-flammable surfaces. Welding and cutting may continue under strict safety precautions, and certain agricultural burns are allowed only with an approved burn plan and proper notification.

Violations of the burn ban are considered a misdemeanor and may result in fines up to $500, jail time, or both.

The order is effective immediately for up to seven days and may be lifted early if conditions improve.

Fixing and Cleaning Up Around Town

If it feels like there's a little extra hustle around Hennessey this week, you're not imagining it, spring cleaning has officially gone citywide.

On Main Street, the Daniel's Construction crew has been busy repairing the sidewalk, curb, and street following a water leak, giving that stretch a much-needed tune-up.

Over at the Pavilion, the Hennessey Department of Public Works crew has been hard at work removing broken concrete, making the area safer for foot traffic, and a little easier on the ankles.

From street repairs to cleanup projects, it's clear the town is shaking off winter and getting ready for a busy event season ahead. Photos by AAN Jack Quirk

Thank you

FROM THE BRUNER FAMILY

We truly want to thank the Hennessey community for showing up the way you did for our fundraiser. It meant so much to us, more than we can really put into words.

To everyone who donated items for the auction, made homemade treats, or brought food, thank you for giving a part of yourselves to make it happen. To those who helped behind the scenes, organizing, setting up, cooking, and doing whatever was needed, we are so grateful for each of you. And to everyone who came out and made a donation, your support really meant the world to us.

Seeing everyone come together like that was very humbling and something we won't forget. We are truly thankful to be part of a community like this. Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts.

KINGFISHER COUNTY RETIRED EDUCATORS' ASSOCIATION – MARCH MEETING

Kimberly Wageman-Pract, Executive Director of The Chisholm Museum in Kingfisher, Oklahoma, was guest speaker at the March KCREA Meeting which featured a theme, “Hat’s Off to Teachers!” Members were encouraged to wear or bring a vintage hat to the meeting. The winner of the hat contest was Florene Tipton of Okarche who brought and wore her mother’s hat from the 1940s.

Pract discussed her background in being a volunteer at a local museum during fifth grade, thanks to the encouragement of her teacher who could see her passion for history at a young age. She later worked at a family-farm teaching village in Grapevine, Texas for several years prior to relocating to Oklahoma for work. Now, in her role as Executive Director, she oversees budgeting and decision making concerning the new updates coming to the museum in the future. The front entrance will have a new exterior design and lighting, updating the existing look from the 1960s when the museum was originally established.

She also shared her personal collection of vintage hats from the 1920s – 1960s, including one with a Bridgerton-theme design. Kimberly also encouraged audience members to attend the upcoming Chuck Wagon Day at the museum on Saturday, March 28, 2026.

In other business, President Deborah Maehs opened the meeting with a flag salute, and LaRita Sipe gave the prayer. Regarding old business, Scholarship Chairman, Cathy Howard, updated the group regarding the progress made concerning the new online scholarship form which had been converted from being a Word document to a fillable pdf. Form online, thanks to assistance from Kingfisher High School technology instructor, Sabrina Nault. Two individuals had reached out to Cathy to express an interest in the scholarship after reading a story about Grace Sinclair, one of the 2025 scholarship winners, online. The form is now available online, and applicants are encouraged to apply on or before the deadline in May 2026.

Membership Chairman, LaRita Sipe, mentioned that she had sent cards to the family of Susie Rice as well as Marilyn Pickle, long-time KCREA member. LaRita also mentioned that volunteers were needed regarding the upcoming County Fine Arts Festival which will be held March 31 – April 1, 2026. Members were encouraged to participate as either volunteers or judges for the contest which is open to all students in the county.

Discussion was also held regarding proposed changes to the Oklahoma Teacher Retirement System by the current Oklahoma legislature in order to fund new teacher pay raises and private school vouchers. Members were encouraged to contact their local state senators and representatives to share their opinions on this issue.

The next KCREA meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 6, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. at the Kingfisher Memorial Library Community room with Erin Schammahorn, Director of Physical Therapy Services at Kingfisher Memorial Hospital, as guest speaker regarding the topic of “Advice for Healthy Living.” All members are encouraged to attend and bring a guest.

Dover Alumni Book Returns with New Edition, Updated History

DOVER, OK — A piece of Dover school history is getting a fresh update, while also bringing a classic back for those who may have missed it the first time around.

The Dover Public School Foundation has announced the release of the second edition of the Dover School Alumni Book, an updated collection that continues to preserve the faces and memories of generations of Dover graduates.

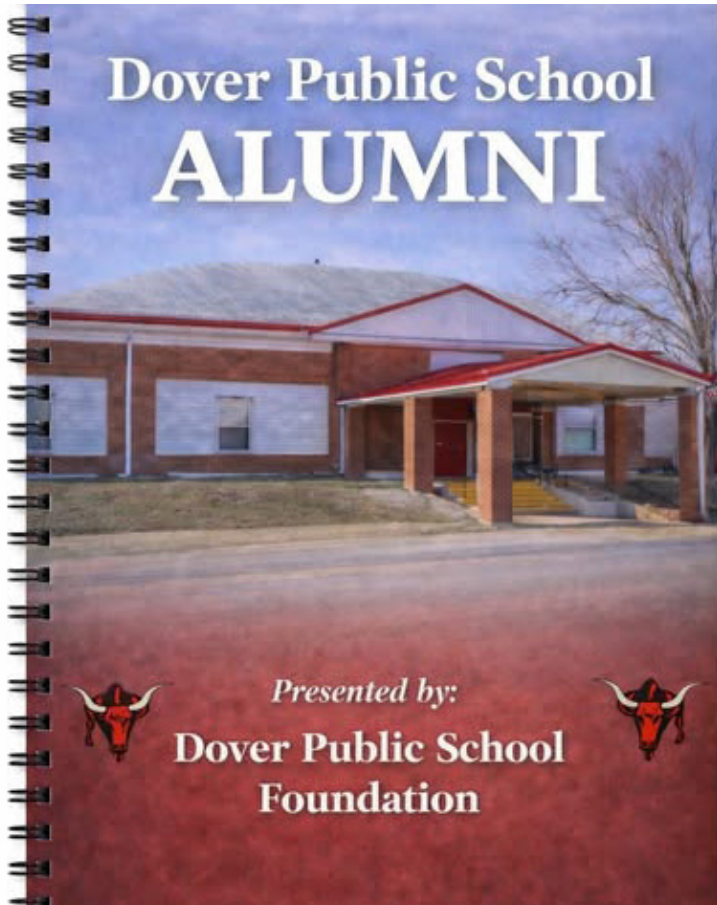

The original alumni chronicle, first published in the spring of 2020 and put together by Lee Briix of Hennessey, was created to commemorate the Millennium and quickly became a keepsake for many former students and families. Now, the new edition expands on that effort by adding graduating panel photos from 2001 through 2025.

For those who didn't pick up the original the first time, the foundation is also making the first edition available again, giving alumni another chance to own a piece of Dover's history.

The deadline for the first printing of both editions is May 1, 2026, with books expected to be ready for pickup by May 15.

Pricing is set at $30 for the first edition and $40 for the second edition, with shipping available for $12.50.

For more information or to place an order, contact 405-368-0802 or mail inquiries to P.O. Box 154, Dover, OK 73734.

Bob's Street? (Turns Out... Yes.)

Last week, Judge Robert C. "Bob" Lovell turned 100, and if you were anywhere near Hennessey, you probably ran into a cake, a handshake, or at least someone telling a Bob story.

There were parties and plenty of well-deserved recognition, but the most lasting tribute showed up a little more quietly, no balloons required.

Sometime over the weekend, a new sign went up on Oakwood Drive, officially dedicating the street to Judge Lovell on his 100th birthday, March 27, 2026. No big announcement, no drumroll, just one of those "hey, look at that" moments that kind of sneaks up on you.

Of course, if you're going to name a street after someone, it helps if they've already put in the time there. Bob and his family built the first house on Oakwood Dr. and was the one that got it brought into town limits.

Bob's Family spent much of their adult lives on Oakwood Drive, so in this case, the town didn't have to look very far for the right spot.

And let's be honest, not many people get to celebrate turning 100 and have a street named after them in the same week. Most of us are lucky if we find our car keys.

Happy Birthday, Bob. If anyone's earned a permanent address in town history, it's you.

Off to State!

The Pride of Hennessey Band is officially on the road to State.

On Tuesday, March 31, the band was escorted out of town by Hennessey Police and Fire, giving them the full sendoff treatment. Students and teachers lined Mitchell Road, cheering them on and celebrating the band's accomplishment.

With sirens blaring and plenty of community pride behind them, the band heads to State representing Hennessey in style.

Good luck, Pride of Hennessey!

Featuring the Legendary Tasca Street Boss

TASCA STREET BOSS 429 The Original "Beat Me If You Can" Street Monster

Back in 1969, Bob Tasca didn't just build a fast car... he built a legend, the baddest Muscle car on the planet!

Rolling out of Tasca Ford, the Street Boss 429 came with a challenge that turned heads and emptied egos: "Beat the Boss" — $1,000 cash to anyone who could outrun it on street tires and mufflers.

Sounds simple... until you lined up next to it.

With blistering low 11-second passes on street tires, that money stayed exactly where it started, in Tasca's pocket. Nobody was cashing in.

This wasn't just another Mustang, it was the car that raised the bar and told every "fast street car" out there to step up or step aside.

Now, this piece of muscle car history, owned by Brent Hajek of the Hajek Motorsports Museum, is rolling into Hennessey.

If you like horsepower, history, and a little bit of swagger, you won't want to miss it.

Come see the car that once dared the world to try, and backed it up every single time.
