HUNDREDS ATTEND HHS ALL-CLASS REUNION

Saturday, October 3, was a big day in Hennessey, with a doubleheader of hometown fun.

Hundreds of Hennessey High School graduates returned to their old stomping grounds, spending the day reminiscing about growing up in a small town, and probably telling a few stories that have gotten better with age.

Some took a bus tour around town, others attended the Hennessey Wine Festival, and eventually everyone gathered at Jimmy and Beth Berkenbile's Gathering Place event space for the annual HHS All-Class Reunion.

Danny Bossa got up bright and early to cook all the meat, while class members brought in the rest of the meal. After dinner, each class gathered for group photos. Those photos can be found in an earlier post on the All About Hennessey Facebook page.

The evening was filled with old stories, catching up with longtime friends and plenty of laughs. Judging by some of the conversations, a few high school stories may still be subject to the statute of limitations.

HENNESSEY WINE FESTIVAL'S 15TH YEAR

The Hennessey United Wine Festival brought hundreds downtown Saturday, October 3, for wine, food, shopping and music at Memorial Park.

Now in its 15th year, the event expanded its vendor lineup to include beer, baked goods, gifts, local nonprofits and food trucks. Organizers also shortened the former Wine & Chocolate Festival name, citing difficulty finding chocolate vendors and Oklahoma's warm fall weather.

Initial estimates counted about 400 paid visitors, plus another 400 or more who enjoyed the vendors and afternoon activities.

Shakespeare Winery earned Best of Show honors. Turner Me On placed first in dry wines, followed by Shakespeare. Wild Horse took first in sweet wines, with Put a Cork in It finishing second.

Native Spirits and Turner Me On Wine received plaques recognizing 15 years of festival participation.

Organizers thanked participating wineries, visitors and everyone who voted for their favorites. Photos by AAH Angie Bruner and Jack Quirk.

CHRYSTAL CADDELL

By Bonny Flesher

In October, my fellow Lion Angie Kennedy and I took on the task of co-program chairmen for the Kingfisher Lions Club. When I reached out to my friend Chrystal Caddell about speaking about her job as a hospice liaison, she came through for us.

In my introduction, I explained that I had the privilege of following her older sons around the football field with my camera. Eventually, the pictures turned to drawings and memories of their journey playing for Hennessey. I confessed I often drove home giggling about some ornery antics and thankful I didn't have to parent them. We did a bit of reminiscing during lunch.

Chrystal shared with the group that she grew up in Ames, Oklahoma. She raised her four children in Hennessey and worked many jobs. She shared that she came to be a liaison for Complete OK because of her mother's cancer journey and being placed on hospice.

Chrystal came with a message. She wasn't there to talk about the company itself. She wanted to stress the importance of looking into hospice care sooner rather than later. When comfort becomes the goal versus a cure, the focus shifts from quantity to quality. Doctors usually refer patients to hospice when they have six months or less to live.

Hospice provides many different services, including nursing, spiritual support and social work. Not only do they offer support for their patients, but they also extend support to the patients' families. Chrystal encouraged everyone to interview different hospice companies. Get your information before you need it. This helps support the patient and take the fear out of the journey.

On a personal note, I walked with my parents during my dad's cancer journey. I will be forever appreciative of the hospice caretakers. I watched them care for my father, but they also did everything they could to ease our anxiety. They walked with us through a difficult time and showed up to celebrate my dad's life.

I can't remember a lot about the day of my father's funeral, but I remember seeing their faces. One last time, they offered us quiet support and respect for our loved one.

Chrystal knows end-of-life care is not a conversation anyone wants to have, but having knowledge and knowing hospice care is available will help when that time comes. She knows there are many questions about hospice care and will help you navigate the journey.

SEPTEMBER ALL ABOUT YOU FLOWERS - CHASITY FIPPS

All About Hennessey and The Hennessey Flower Shop have partnered to recognize someone outstanding in our community. September's flower recipient is Chasity Fipps, nominated by Shelley Burch.

Shelley said:

If you ever find yourself in Hennessey and need help, there is a very good chance you will somehow end up with Chasity Fipps. She is the kind of person a complete stranger can walk up to and say, "Hey, can you help me with something?" And before they even finish the sentence, Chasity has already said, "Sure!"

Chasity is the kind of woman who will feed the kids in the community, the adults, and even probably feed a few people who weren't even supposed to be there, and then wonder why there aren't any leftovers.

She is always somewhere helping with a community club or event. Whether it is the Hennessey Lions Club, Hennessey Mothers Club, Hennessey Round-Up Club, or just something somebody dreamed up five minutes ago, you can almost guarantee Chasity is somewhere in the middle of it.

She feeds the community.

She hides the Easter eggs.

She shows up when people need her.

And if you need moral support, she is your girl.

Now, Chasity is also the kind of person who has made one very serious mistake in life:
She became my friend.

Because when I call her and say, "I have an idea...", she does not hang up.

She listens. She asks questions. She rolls her eyes at me quite often but...

She starts helping before I even finish explaining.

And somewhere around the middle of the conversation, I imagine her thinking, "Why didn't I just let this call go to voicemail?"

But does she abandon me? Nope. She's already in.

Chasity is a team player, a mom, a mamaw, a supporter, a helper, a community cheerleader, and the kind of friend who will show up even when she probably has 47 other things she should be doing.

She is the kind of person who makes a community better simply by being part of it.

And most importantly, she is someone I am incredibly proud to call my sister from another mother... and another mister, a community leader & my friend.

On behalf of All About Hennessey and The Hennessey Flower Shop, we congratulate Chasity Fipps for being an outstanding YOU!

Keep an eye out for your chance to nominate someone special in your life, because there's always another hometown hero waiting to be celebrated.

Willa Dean Parker Obituary

Willa Dean Parker, aged 91, passed into the arms of her Lord on August 23, 2026 in Tucson, AZ.

Willa was born September 5, 1934 in Barnsdall, OK to Dean Jesse and Ruby Irene Leard.

A child of the Dust Bowl, Willa's early life was spent living between Oklahoma and California. She loved to share stories about the times her parents would load the family and belongings up and hit Route 66 seeking work and shelter. The trials, tribulations and hard-earned joys that those days brought helped make Willa the strong, resourceful and intelligent woman she grew to be. Willa attended school in Barnsdall, OK as well as San Jose and Bakersfield, CA.

In her mid-teens Willa Dean settled in Pawhuska, OK where she worked in a local drug store and waitressed at the Duncan Hotel. It was there that she met and fell in love with Lloyd Wesley Parker. They were wed in Bartlesville, OK on January 5, 1951. She was 16, he was 18.

While Lloyd labored as a roughneck in the oil fields, Willa raised their four children and stood by her husband as he worked his way up through several positions in the petroleum industry. The family lived briefly in Carmen, OK before settling in Hennessey, OK in 1966.

In the mid-1970's Willa supported her husband's decision to form his own business, Lloyd Parker and Son Construction, an oil construction company. The couple poured their time, energy and efforts into making it a successful business. The couple also owned Parker Sporting Goods that Willa managed. Willa was active in the Hennessey community, serving as president of the Hennessey Country Club's Women's Association and the Lioness Club and held both local and state offices in Eastern Star. She learned to play duplicate bridge, a skill and passion she enjoyed the rest of her life.

Following her husband's passing in 1988 Willa moved to Enid, OK. She earned her CNA degree and worked at Golden Oaks Assisted Living for several years. In 2007 she settled in Kansas City, MO to be closer to her son and his partner. Following his retirement in 2020, Willa moved with her son to Silver City, NM and then to Tucson, AZ in 2025. She was a resident of The Cottages of Tucson, a memory-care center, at the time of her passing.

Willa was preceded in death by her husband, parents, daughter Dayna Logan, grandson Nathan Kilpatrick, cherished mother-in-law Rose Alameda Parker and siblings Earl "Chuck" Leard, Lucille Stewart, Phillip R. Leard and Julius Leard.

She is survived by daughters Kathryn Kolberg (Ed) of Guthrie, OK, Karen Notheis of Yukon, OK, son Lloyd Dale Parker and life companion Leo Andrade of Oro Valley, AZ, grandsons Jeremy Lee (Stephanie), Nicholas Waggoner, David Wesley Jobe, granddaughter Kristina Vculek and seven great grandchildren. A graveside memorial, arranged through Cordry-Gritz Funeral Home of Hennessey, will be held Friday, September 4 at 10 a.m. at the Hennessey Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Willa's name to Mountain Shadows Presbyterian Church in Tucson at www.mountainshadowschurch.org. Please choose the "Other Special" giving option and include "Willa Dean Parker Memorial" in the note section.

RESERVE ANGELS GROW INTO A NEW MAIN STREET HOME

The Hennessey Reserve Angels are taking another step forward, establishing a Main Street presence at 120 N. Main in the former Revolutions building as the organization prepares for its 2026 Christmas giving season.

The move marks a new chapter for a local effort that began in 2005 when Shelley and Bryan Burch helped a grandmother raising her grandchildren. As more needs became known, more people joined in, building a network of donors, volunteers and first responders.

Today, the Reserve Angels help provide Christmas gifts for children in Hennessey and surrounding communities. Their outreach also includes Hennessey Care Center residents and senior citizens who could use some holiday cheer. Volunteers prepare the gifts, and first responders pass them out on Christmas Eve.

Set times for picking up and dropping off applications and gifts at the new location will be announced. Organizers are arranging those hours around their work schedules.

Community support continues to fuel that growth. This fall, the organization will hold its smoked pork butt fundraiser, followed by a Car Show and Toy Drive in November. Details about the November event will be announced.

The pork butt fundraiser offers smoked pork butts for $30 each, with pickup October 17 at Cleveland and Mitchell in Hennessey. Proceeds help purchase Christmas gifts for children.

For fundraiser information or ways to support the Reserve Angels, contact Shelley Burch at 405-699-1025.

LADY EAGLES CLOSE SEASON WITH MILESTONE RECORD

LADY EAGLES FINISH WITH FIRST WINNING SEASON SINCE 2014

The Hennessey Lady Eagles' softball season ended with a 3-1 loss to Little Axe, but the final game was only part of the story.

Hennessey finished 19-12, its first winning season since the Lady Eagles went 11-10 in 2014. The team also brought home its first tournament championship plaque since 2018.

The Lady Eagles collected 219 hits and scored 194 runs while holding opponents to 130 hits and 105 runs. Hennessey pitchers recorded 225 strikeouts and allowed 57 earned runs. On defense, the team finished with a .925 fielding percentage, recording 338 putouts and 170 assists.

Those results came through hard work, steady improvement and players learning to count on one another. Families and fans supported the team throughout the season, and the seniors leave with a winning record and a tournament title to show for their efforts.

Congratulations Lady Eagles on a great season!

MORE THAN A BANK

Meet the people behind Community State Bank- Hennessey.

Some people just have a way of making a place feel a little more welcoming. At Community State Bank's Hennessey branch, Nila Mier is one of those people.

Nila is the Head Bank Teller at CSB, and this April will mark 19 years since she joined the bank. And if you ask her what has kept her there all these years, the answer comes pretty easy, the people.

"I'm a people person. I love the customers and the people I work with every day."

Spend a little time with Nila and you'll believe it. She's bubbly, energetic, quick to laugh and almost always has a smile waiting for whoever walks through the door.

Around the bank, Nila has crowned herself "The Queen." She also proudly claims the title of the one most likely to make everyone laugh. And birthdays? Don't even try to keep yours a secret. If Nila knows it's your special day, she'll sing you the Happy Birthday song.

Outside of CSB, Nila is a Covington-Douglas graduate who lives in Marshall. Her biggest motivation is her 16-year-old daughter, Sophia. She is a sophomore at Covington-Douglas and, according to her mom, she's a fighter with a beautiful spirit and a full-blown teenage girl who is a whole lot like her momma.

Someone once shared Philippians 4:13 with Nila: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." She took those words to heart, and they've stayed with her ever since — a reminder that with faith, she can keep moving forward, keep growing and go as far as she sets her mind to.
